KIS Fee

Security Deposit – Payable by bank transfer or demand draft upon acceptance of KIS admission offer. Refundable when students leave KIS, subject to school regulations regarding adjustment of dues, if any (non-return of textbooks, music instruments, KIS properties). No interest will be paid on this deposit. KIS cannot hold places for students who have not paid security deposits or do not meet payment deadlines. Security deposits will be retained by KIS for six weeks after student departure to clear all accounts. Security deposits may not be used against final payment of fees or accounts.

Development Fee – For new students accepted and enrolled, KIS development fee shall be payable prior to or at the time of enrolment.

Alumni Services Fee – An Alumni Services fee will be charged on admission to cover alumni annual publications and postage, access to alumni directory and related expenses.

Annual Fee (includes the following)

Tuition – Covers course fee and use of texts, library books, computers, science laboratory equipment and certain classroom supplies.

Boarding – Dormitory accommodation.

Food services – All meals, morning coffee and afternoon tea.

Activities – Admission to "All School" programs.

Student Government – Class funds and Student Council for grades 7-12.

Advisor Events – Advisors hosting meals for advisees.

Music Tuition Policy – All students are provided with instruction in one musical instrument of their choice free of charge.

Facilities and Amenities – The use and maintenance of KIS buildings, equipment, etc.

Fees for Semester 1 (July) and Semester 2 (January) are payable by the final day of the previous semester.

Additional fee will be charged as decided by the Principal from the due date of payment on the outstanding balance if the payment is not made by the due date.

Students with accounts in arrears at the end of the KIS academic year and who have not paid their fees for the next academic year or semester will not be allowed to return to KIS the following academic year or semester until accounts have been settled.

Other Expenses are Reimbursed at Actuals

These will be payable additionally and are not included in KIS annual fee:

- Where more expensive classroom supplies are provided, costs may be charged. Presently these classes include Art, Home Economics, Industrial Arts and Photography.
- Field trips are part of the KIS academic program and are planned as an integral part of the curriculum. Students are expected to participate in field trips for which expenses will be payable by the financial provider.
- Financial providers will be charged for repairs or replacements to school property or other equipment and lost text books by students found to be responsible.
- Personal supplies, laundry (dhobi) costs, vouchers for purchasing items, Gymkhana (snack bar), long weekend allowance, travel allowance and for cash purchases.

Withdrawal

1. Financial providers are expected to inform the KIS Admissions office in writing by 1 April or 1 October if they intend to withdraw any student for the next semester.
2. Financial providers failing to inform the KIS Admissions office in writing by the above-mentioned dates shall be liable to pay one month consolidated fee (of the next semester) if the notice is given after 1 April or 1 October, as the case may be, but before the end of the current semester.
3. Financial providers informing the KIS Admissions office in writing during vacation time of the student withdrawal with effect from the following semester, shall be liable to pay two months consolidated fee of the said following semester.
4. Financial providers informing the KIS Admissions office in writing of the student withdrawal on or after the first day of the new semester classes shall be liable to pay three months consolidated fees of the said new semester.
5. Students failing to join classes within 48 hours of KIS commencement of classes without adequate and justifiable reasons shall be liable to lose their places at the school.
6. No fees, partial or full, will be refunded if students are withdrawn or required to leave KIS during a semester for any reason.
7. Any information/intimation for such withdrawal shall be deemed effective on receipt by KIS.

New Students – After the acceptance of admission, even if the student does not actually take his/her place in the school, a fee will be deducted from the Security deposit to the extent of 50% of the Security deposit. No refund will be given as of the first day of school.

Fee Changes

Notification of any fee changes will be given before 31 December of the preceding academic year.
