IN THY FACE I SEE
THE MAP OF HONOUR TRUTH AND LOYALTY

The warm feeling of the holiday season remains unchanged for a young man. The early darkness, the frequent need for an overcoat, the anticipation of the year's first snowfall, great expectations for the wrestling, swimming, and basketball teams, even a hint of anxiety at the thought of impending mid-year exams ... The thoughts of a Gilman boy never really change.

The needs of the school are also fairly constant, but unfortunately the cost of these needs is not. Gilman receives essential sustenance from alumni, parents, and friends; and this support is more important than ever before. The School thanks those who have given to Annual Giving and those who are planning to do so.

Warm and sincere good wishes go to the Gilman family in this season of family togetherness.

PHOTO BY JOHN W. ARMIGER '62