How Do I Know if JROTC is Right for Me?

- If you're thinking of participating in your NHS JROTC program but aren't sure, ask yourself the following questions:
  - Would I be dedicated to the JROTC program?
  - Do I want to learn valuable skills that can help me succeed in the real world?
  - Am I disciplined enough to reach goals I set for yourself?
- If you can answer 'yes' to these questions, you may be a good candidate for the JROTC program.
