IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
BANK DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

Change of address - Please call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement to tell us about a change of address.

Deposit agreement - When you opened your account, you received a deposit agreement and fee schedule and agreed that your account would be governed by the terms of these documents, as we may amend them from time to time. These documents are part of the contract for your deposit account and govern all transactions relating to your account, including all deposits and withdrawals. Copies of both the deposit agreement and fee schedule which contain the current version of the terms and conditions of your account relationship may be obtained at our banking centers.

Electronic transfers: In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers - If you think your statement or receipt is wrong or you need more information about an electronic transfer (e.g., ATM transactions, direct deposits or withdrawals, point-of-sale transactions) on the statement or receipt, telephone or write us at the address and number listed on the front of this statement as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number.
- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

For consumer accounts used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, we will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (10 calendar days if you are a Massachusetts customer) (20 business days if you are a new customer, for electronic transfers occurring during the first 30 days after the first deposit is made to your account) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it will take to complete our investigation.

For other accounts, we investigate, and if we find we have made an error, we credit your account at the conclusion of our investigation.

Reporting other problems - You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or an unauthorized transaction within the time period specified in the deposit agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases are 30 days or less), we are not liable to you for, and you agree to not make a claim against us for the problems or unauthorized transactions.

Direct deposits - If you have arranged to have direct deposits made to your account at least once every 60 days from the same person or company, you may call us at the telephone number listed on the front of this statement to find out if the deposit was made as scheduled. You may also review your activity online or visit a banking center for information.

Thereafter, the eligibility and qualifications for membership, and the manner of and admission into membership shall be prescribed by resolutions duly adopted by the board of directors of the corporation or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board of directors. All resolutions or rules and regulations relating to members adopted by the board of directors of the corporation shall be affixed to the Bylaws of the corporation, and shall be deemed to be a part hereof. Resolutions or rules and regulations adopted by the board of directors may prescribe, with respect to all members, the amount and manner of imposing and collecting any initiation fees, dues, or other fees, assessments, fines, and penalties, the manner of suspension or termination of membership, and for reinstatement of membership, and, except as may hereinafter otherwise be provided, the rights, liabilities, and other incidents of membership.

2.2 Termination of Membership. The right or interest of a member shall not terminate except upon the happening of any of the following events: death, resignation, expulsion, dissolution, or liquidation of the corporation.

Membership certificates, cards, or other instruments, if issued, shall bear the signatures or facsimile signatures of the president and secretary of the corporation and shall bear the seal of the corporation, if any, or a facsimile thereof.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

3.1. Annual Meeting. Annual meetings of the corporation shall be held on the second Friday in September of each year, commencing in 2007, or at such other date and time as shall be designated from time to time by the board of directors and stated in the notice of the meeting. At the annual meeting, members shall elect a board of directors and transact other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

3.2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of members may be held on such date or dates as may be fixed by board of directors of the corporation from time to time, or upon the call of the members having at least ten percent (10%) of the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting. Upon receipt of call from the board of directors or the members, the secretary (or such other person as may be designated by the board or the members) shall send out notices of the meeting to all members.

3.3 Place of Meeting. Any annual or special meeting of members may be held at such place within or without the State of Arizona as the board of directors of the corporation may from time to time fix. In the event the board of directors shall fail to fix the place or time, or in the event members call or convene a special meeting, then the meeting shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at the place written in the notice of meeting.

3.4. Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting shall be given for all meetings of members. The notice shall state the person or persons calling the meeting. Notice for an annual meeting shall state that the meeting is being called for the election of directors and for the transaction of other business as may properly come before the meeting. Notices of special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. At any special meeting, only the business stated in the notice of meeting may be transacted. Any notice of meeting of members relating to the election of directors shall set forth any amendments to the Bylaws of the corporation adopted by the board of directors, together with a concise statement of the changes made.

3.5 Giving of Notice. Notice of meeting shall be given either personally or by first class mail not less than ten (10) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, to each member at his or her address recorded on the records of the corporation, or at another address that the member may have furnished in writing to the secretary of the corporation. Notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited with postage prepaid in a post office or other official depository under the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States Post Office.

3.6 Notice of Adjournment. Any meeting of members may be adjourned from time to time. In that event, it shall not be necessary to provide further notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting if announcement of the time and place of the adjourned meeting is given at the meeting so adjourned. In the event the board of directors fixes a new record date for an adjourned meeting, a new notice shall be given, in the same manner as herein provided.

3.7 Waiver of Notice. No notice need be given to any member who executes and delivers a waiver of notice before or after the meeting. The attendance of a member in person or by proxy at the meeting without protesting the lack of notice of a meeting, shall constitute a waiver of notice by the member.

3.8 Record Date. The board of directors of the corporation shall fix a record date for the purpose of determining members entitled to notice of, to vote, to express consent or dissent from any proposal without a meeting, to determine members entitled to receive distributions or allotment of rights, or for any other proper purpose. The record date shall not be more than sixty (60) days nor less than ten (10) days prior to the date of a meeting or consent or the date on which any distribution or allotment of rights, as the case may be, is to be made. In the event no record date is fixed, the record date for the determination of members entitled to vote at a meeting of members shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if no notice is given, the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. The record date for determining members for any purpose other than that specified in the preceding sentence shall be the close of business on the day on which the resolution of directors relating thereto is adopted. Establishment of a record date shall apply to any adjournment of any meeting, unless a new record date is fixed by the board of directors for an adjourned meeting. In the event a demand for meeting signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the voting power of the corporation is delivered to any corporate officer, the record date for determining whether the ten percent (10%) requirement has been met shall be the close of business on the thirtieth day before delivery of the demand.

3.9 Record of Members. At every meeting of members, there shall be presented a list or record of members as of the record date, certified by the officer responsible for its preparation, and upon request therefor, any member who has given written notice to the corporation, which request shall be made at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, shall have the right to inspect the list or record at the meeting. The list shall be evidence of the right of the persons to vote at the meeting, and all persons who appear on the list or record to be members may vote at the meeting.

3.10 Proxy. Every member may authorize another person to act for him or her by proxy in all matters in which a member may participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, voting or participating in a meeting, or expressing consent or dissent without a meeting. Every proxy shall be signed by the member or his or her attorney-in-fact, and shall be revocable at the pleasure of the member executing it, except as otherwise provided by law. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date of its execution.

3.11 Presiding Officer. Meetings of the members shall be presided over by the following officers, in order of seniority: the chairman of the board (if any), vice chairman of the board (if any), president, executive vice president (if any), vice president, or, if none of the foregoing is in office or present at the meeting, by a chairman to be chosen by a majority of the members in attendance. The secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation shall act as secretary of every meeting. When neither the secretary nor an assistant secretary is available, the presiding officer may appoint a secretary of the meeting.

3.12 Annual Report. At each annual meeting of members, the board of directors shall present an annual report. The report shall be filed with the records of the corporation and entered in the minutes of the proceedings of the annual meeting of members.

3.13 Order of Business. The order of business at all meetings of members shall be as follows:

Roll call.
Reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting.
Report of standing committees.
Officers' reports.
Unfinished business.
New business.

3.14 Procedures. Voting on motions and resolutions shall be by voice or roll call vote, including proxies, or may be cast through absentee or mail ballot as determined by the board of directors. Voting for election or appointment of directors and officers shall be by secret ballot unless there is only one candidate for a position, in which case the vote may be taken by voice or roll call vote including proxies and absentee ballots. The board of directors may establish specific procedures that provide for the casting of absentee or mail ballots. In the event of a tie on any ballot, a second ballot shall be cast for those who have tied. Absentee or mail ballots shall be re-counted as unchanged votes. If the tie remains unbroken after the second ballot vote, the election shall be determined by lot, with the name of each candidate who tied being written on paper and placed in a common container and the presiding officer then drawing one name from the container. Other voting and nomination and election procedures may be established in writing by the board of directors.

3.15 Election Inspectors. The directors may, but need not, appoint one or more inspectors to act at any meeting or any adjournment thereof. If inspectors are not appointed, the presiding officer of the meeting may, but need not, appoint inspectors. Each appointed inspector shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability. The inspectors shall determine the number of memberships outstanding, the voting power of each, the number of memberships represented at the meeting, the existence of a quorum, and the validity and effect of proxies. The inspectors shall receive votes, ballots, or consents, hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, and count and tabulate all votes, ballots, or consents, determine the result, and do all acts as are proper to conduct the election or vote of all members. The inspectors shall make a report in writing of all matters determined by them with respect to the meeting.

3.16 Quorum. The members entitled to cast at least one-third (⅓) of the total number of votes entitled to be cast at a meeting shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members for the transaction of any business. The members present may adjourn the meeting despite the absence of a quorum. Each membership shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote. In the election of directors, a plurality of the votes cast shall elect. Except to the extent provided by law, all other action shall be by a majority of the votes cast (or as otherwise provided in these Bylaws), provided that the majority of the affirmative votes cast shall be at least equal to a majority of the quorum for the meeting. Should a quorum of one-third (1/3) fail to be present at any properly called meeting of members, the members present may direct the president to re-notice a meeting of members to be held no sooner than ten (10) days and no later than thirty (30) days after the meeting at which a quorum is not present, and at such newly noticed meeting, the quorum for the transaction of business by the members of the Association shall be one-sixth (1/6) of the total number of votes entitled to be cast at a meeting.

3.17. Action by Members Without a Meeting. Any act of the members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the act is signed by at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter unless a different vote is required pursuant to these Bylaws or the Declaration. In that event the consent must be signed by a number of members at least sufficient to reach the required vote. Members may also conduct business without a meeting through the casting of mail ballots.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1. Number and Qualification. The corporation shall be managed by a board of directors composed of no fewer than two (2) and no more than six (6) directors. Each director shall be at least eighteen (18) years of age and shall be a member of the corporation during his or her directorship. The initial board of directors shall consist of two (2) persons. Thereafter, the number of directors constituting the entire board may be fixed from time to time by action of the members or of the directors. The number of directors may be increased or decreased within the above limitations by action of the members or the board of directors, provided that any action by the board of directors to effect the increase or decrease shall require the vote of a majority of the entire board of directors. No decrease shall shorten the term of any director then in office.

4.2 Initial Board and Election of Directors. The first board of directors shall consist of those persons named as the initial board of directors in the Articles of Incorporation, and they shall hold office until the first annual meeting of members and until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. Thereafter, at each annual meeting of members, the membership shall elect directors to hold office until the next annual meeting. Each director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he or she was elected and until his or her successor has been duly elected and qualified, or until his or her prior resignation or removal as hereinafter provided.

4.3 Powers and Duties. The board of directors shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Association and may do all such acts and things as are not by law or by these Bylaws directed to be exercised and done by the members.

4.4 Removal. Any or all of the members of the board of directors may be removed with or without cause by vote of the members of the corporation. The board of directors may remove any director thereof for cause only.

4.5 Resignation. A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the board of directors or to an officer of the corporation. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the board of directors or such officer. Acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4.6 Vacancies. Newly-created directorships or vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a vote of a majority of the board of directors then in office, although less than a quorum. Vacancies occurring by reason of the removal of a director without cause shall be filled by a vote of the members. A director elected to fill a vacancy caused by resignation, death, or removal shall be elected to hold office for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

MEETINGS OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5.1 Annual Meetings. A regular annual meeting of the board of directors shall be held immediately following the annual meeting of members. All other meetings shall be held at such time and place as shall be fixed by the board of directors from time to time.

5.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by or at the direction of the chairman of the board, the president, or by a majority of the directors then in office.

5.3 Notice of Meeting. No notice shall be required for regular meetings of the board of directors for which the time and place have been fixed. Notice of a special meeting of the board of directors shall be given to all directors then in office at least twenty-four hours prior to the meeting, if notice is hand-delivered to a director, or three (3) days prior, if notice is given by mail. The notice of any meeting need not specify the purpose of the meeting.

5.4 Waiver of Notice. The requirement for furnishing notice of a meeting may be waived by any director who signs a waiver of notice before or after the meeting or who attends the meeting without protesting the lack of notice to him or her.

5.5 Quorum. A majority of all the members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum. At any meeting held to remove one or more directors, a quorum shall consist of a majority of the directors excluding the director being considered for removal. Whenever a vacancy on the board of directors shall prevent a quorum from being present, then, in that event, the quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the board of directors excluding the vacancy. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn a meeting to another time and place. Except to the extent provided by law and these Bylaws, the act of the board of directors shall be by a majority of the directors present at the time of vote, a quorum having been present at the commencement of that meeting. Any action authorized by resolution, in writing, by all of the directors entitled to vote thereon and filed with the minutes of the Corporation shall be the act of the board of directors with the same force and effect as if the same had been passed by unanimous vote at a duly called meeting of the board.

5.6 Presiding Officer. The chairman of the board, if any, shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors. If there is no chairman, or in his or her absence, the president shall preside, and, if there is no president, or in his or her absence, any other director chosen by the directors present shall preside.

5.7 Executive Committee. The board of directors may designate from their number an executive committee, which shall have such authority as the board of directors may delegate, except to the extent prohibited by law. In addition, the board of directors may establish standing or special committees from among the board of directors or the members of the corporation for any lawful purpose, which may have such powers as the board of directors may lawfully delegate.

5.8. Action by Directors Without a Meeting. Any act of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the act is signed by all of the directors with respect to the subject matter of the meeting. The consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote.

OFFICERS

6.1 Designation. The board of directors may elect or appoint a chairman of the board of directors, a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, one or more assistant secretaries, a treasurer, one or more assistant treasurers, and such other officers as they may determine. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. If there is only one officer of the corporation, that officer shall be president, who shall have all the authority and duties of all the specific officers set forth herein.

6.2 Term of Office. Each officer shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the board of directors and until his or her successor has been duly elected and qualified. The board of directors may remove any officer with or without cause at any time.

6.3 President. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, shall have the responsibility for the general management of the affairs of the corporation, and shall carry out the resolutions of the board of directors.

6.4 Vice President. During the absence or disability of the president of the corporation, the vice president, or, if there be more than one, the executive vice president, shall have all the powers and functions of the president. The vice president shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors from time to time.

6.5 Secretary. The secretary shall keep the minutes of meetings of the board of directors and of the meetings of members. He or she shall have custody of the seal of the corporation, if any, and shall affix and attest the same to documents duly authorized by the board of directors. The secretary shall serve all notices of the corporation that have been authorized by the board of directors. The secretary shall have charge of all the books and records of the Association except the books of account and shall maintain a membership book reflecting the names and addresses of all members. The secretary shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the board of directors. If the secretary is not present at any meeting, the presiding officer shall appoint a secretary pro tempore who shall keep the minutes of such meeting and record them in the books provided for that purpose.

6.6 Treasurer. The treasurer shall have the care and custody of all of the funds and securities of the corporation and shall deposit the funds in the name of the corporation in such bank accounts as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS

All checks, drafts, notes, bonds, acceptances, contracts, and all other instruments except conveyance shall be signed by such person or persons as shall be provided by general resolution application thereto. Except as otherwise provided by a general resolution of the board of directors, the instruments shall require the signatures of two officers. However, instruments with a face value of five hundred dollars ($500) or less may be executed by any one of the officers.

AMENDMENT OR REPEAL OF BYLAWS

These Bylaws may be amended or repealed in any respect from time to time by a two-thirds (⅔) vote of the board of directors or the members present at any regular or special meeting for which the call includes notice of consideration of proposed bylaw amendments; provided, however, that the board of directors may not amend or repeal any bylaw in which control thereof is vested exclusively in the members. If any bylaw regulating an impending election of directors is adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of directors, there shall be set forth in the notice of the next meeting of members for the election of directors the bylaw so made, amended, or repealed, together with a concise statement of the changes made.

INDEMNIFICATION

9.1 Scope. Subject to the further provisions hereof, the corporation shall indemnify any and all of its existing and former directors and officers against all expenses incurred by them and each of them, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement or compromise, which may arise or be incurred, rendered, or levied in any legal action brought or threatened against any of them for or on account of any action or scope of employment as a director or officer of the corporation, whether or not any action is or has been filed against them, and whether or not any settlement or compromise is approved by a court. Indemnification shall be made by the corporation whether the legal action brought or threatened is by or in the right of the Corporation or by any other person.

9.2 Determination. Whenever any existing or former director or officer shall report to the president of the corporation that he or she has incurred or may incur expenses, including but not limited to legal fees, judgments, penalties, and amounts paid in settlement or compromise in a legal action or omission alleged to have been committed by him or her while acting within the scope of his or her employment as a director or officer of the corporation, the board of directors shall, at its next regular or at a special meeting held within a reasonable time thereafter, determine in good faith whether, in regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, such person acted, failed to act, or refused to act willfully with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent. If the board of directors determines in good faith that such person did not act, fail to act, or refuse to act willfully or with gross negligence or with fraudulent or criminal intent with regard to the matter involved in the action or contemplated action, indemnification shall be mandatory and shall be automatically extended as specified herein.

9.3 Right of Refusal. The corporation shall have the right to refuse indemnification in any instance in which the person to whom indemnification would otherwise have been applicable shall have unreasonably refused to permit the corporation, at its own choosing, to defend him or her in the action.

MISCELLANEOUS

10.1 Books and Records. The corporation shall keep at the principal office of the corporation, complete and correct records and books of account, and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the members, the board of directors, and of any committees appointed by the board of directors, as well as a list or record containing the names and addresses of all members.

10.2 Corporate Seal. The corporate seal, if any, shall be in a form fixed by the board of directors from time to time, subject to applicable law.

10.3 Fiscal Year. The initial fiscal year of the corporation shall end December 31 of each. The board of directors is given the authority to change the fiscal year of the corporation subject to applicable law.

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 26-3572780. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Assigning an EIN does not grant tax-exempt status to non-profit organizations. Publication 557, Tax Exempt Status for Your Organization, has details on the application process, as well as information on returns you may need to file. To apply for formal recognition of tax-exempt status, most organizations will need to complete either Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Form 1024, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(a). Submit the completed form, all applicable attachments, and the required user fee to:

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 contains numerous changes to the tax law provisions affecting tax-exempt organizations, including an annual electronic notification requirement (Form 990-N) for organizations not required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ). Additionally, if you are required to file an annual information return, you may be required to file it electronically. Please refer to the Charities & Non-Profits page at www.irs.gov for the most current information on your filing requirements and on provisions of the Pension Protection Act of 2006 that may affect you.
