First Stop: First Kentuckians

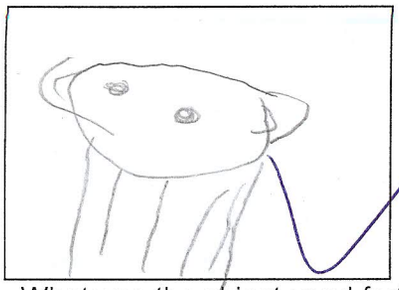
1. Name an article of clothing used by the Native American. Deer skin leggings
2. Name any artifact used by Native Americans. woven basket

Second Stop: Flatboat

1. Unscramble the words below to figure out another name for a flatboat.

   YKNECKTU TBAO Kentucky Boat

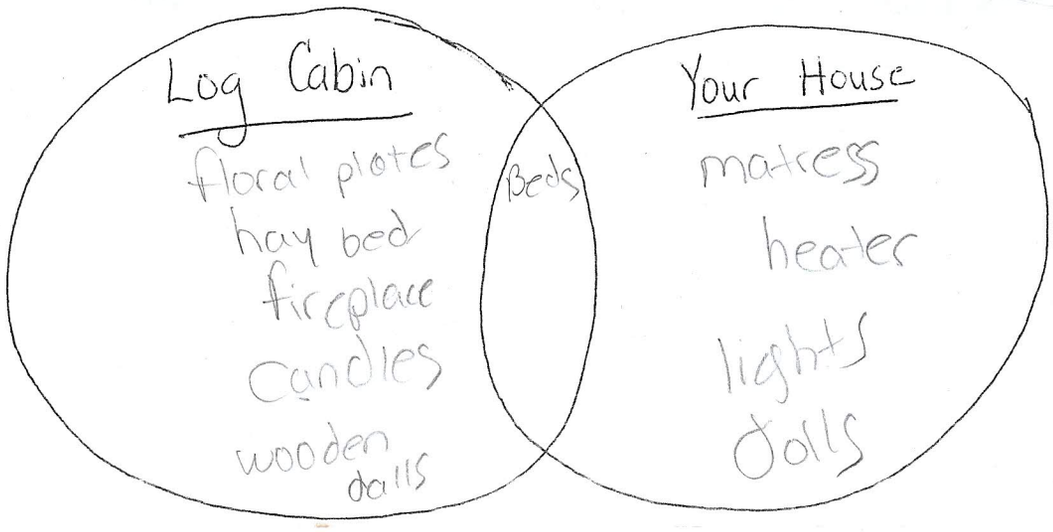
2. Walk inside the boat. Pick one object that interests you from the flatboat, don't forget about the roof. Draw the object.



What was the object used for? It was used for storing China

Third Stop: Log Cabin

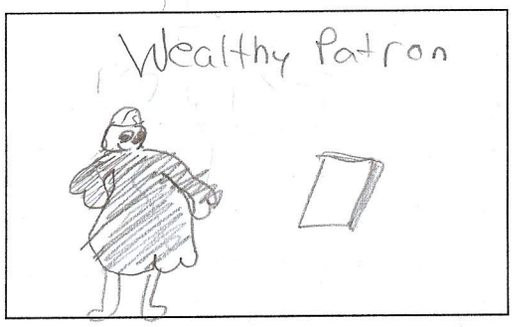
1. Stand in front of the cabin and take a minute to observe what you see. How is the cabin different from your house?



Fourth Stop: Antebellum Kentucky (Before Civil War)

Find the display cases titled, "What's my job?" Examine the artifacts.

Pick one and draw it below.



Fifth Stop: The Civil War Battlefield

Walk to the tent and take a minute to observe what you see. Caring for the wounded during the Civil War was very challenging for doctors. There was a short supply of medicine and often the only option to treat an injured soldier was to amputate, or cut off, his arm or leg. Hospitals were not very clean, and many soldiers died after an amputation due to infection. Write down what you observe.

	Tent
What objects do you see?	Blood, Cotton Balls
What activities are happening?	The doctor is amputating his legs

Visit the other areas in the museum. Draw at least three more artifacts.
