INTERNET PRIVACY

The Alexandria City School Board is committed to complying with the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act and the Virginia Freedom of Information Act. Alexandria City Public Schools (ACPS) does not collect unnecessary personal information by means of its website, and only collects appropriate personal information to the extent necessary to serve its constituents and the community.

Personal information collected and retained by the school division's website will be maintained in compliance with the Government Data Collection and Dissemination Practices Act (Va. Code § 2.2-3800 et seq.). Any individual wishing to learn the purpose for which information has been recorded and the particulars of its use and dissemination may contact the Superintendent or designee regarding this information. Any person wishing to correct, erase, or amend inaccurate, obsolete, or irrelevant information may do so by procedures established by the Superintendent or designee.

The school division informs the public of any personal information collected through its website by posting the privacy statement found in regulation KBE-R Internet Privacy Policy Statement, or a link to this privacy statement in a conspicuous fashion.
