So nice to get a reply. When work is complete on my FOIA request, please have your Finance Dept call me at [redacted] so that I can use my credit card. Checks take way too long and this project has gone on for way too long.

Please acknowledge that you received this email and that you will have the Finance Dept. call me once the work is completed.

Regards,

Richard Bisi

Candace,
Here we go again. I have not received any response to the email below. I called you this morning about 11;20 and was sent to your voicemail.
I assume you have received your mail today. As I noted, if my check has not arrived, have your finance department call me so that I can use my credit card and get this document retrival process going. There has been too much delay.
Please ackowledge .
Regards,
Richard Bisi

Candace,

Once again, I did NOT receive the last 2 emails you sent; the one you sent on Tuesday, Oct. 24 at 11:21am and the one you sent yesterday at 8:15 am.
I became aware of those emails in reviewing your FOIA response log on your website.
I do have one basic question. In one of those emails, you referred to 12 attachments. Did you forward the original emails as my internet provider suggested or did you simply re-send the PDFs?
So, let's agree to do this;
1. If you do NOT receive my check today, please have your finance dept call me so that I can use my credit card. When the check does arrive, you can shred my check.
2. When the project is done and you need the balance, I will again use my credit card.
3. Since there are issues in receiving your emails, please text me at [redacted] to notify me when the project is done.
Regards,
Richard
