The scope of this request includes, but is not limited to, emails and attachments (in any form, documents, images, pdfs, spreadsheets etc.) either sent or received, all draft records, briefing books, memos, notes, minutes, scheduling records (including calendars, appointments, and invitations), text messages, other correspondence (internal and external) by mail, delivered in person or sent electronically, and all other records.

The search for records is limited to those sent, received, and created between January 2022 and the date of your final response.

Please note that this request includes all emails sent and received on official state email accounts, as well as personal accounts if used to communicate about public policy. This request also includes any and all records available through a web hyperlink, including otherwise public records that are password protected.

I am making this request on behalf of True North Research, a media requestor. The records provided in response to this request will be made available to the general public and the disclosure of the materials would be in the public interest, benefiting public understanding of the workings of governments. As such, a waiver of any fees is requested.

In the event of fees, please inform me of the total amount before fulfilling my request. I request that these records be provided in electronic form and in their native format.

If you choose to deny any part of this request, please provide a written explanation for the denial including a reference to the specific statutory exemption(s) claimed. Additionally, since a request for records has been initiated and True North plans to enforce its rights under the law, the requested records and related records should be preserved.

Thank you for your time. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ansev Demirhan
