Dear Mr. Drange:

Thank you for your patience concerning our response to your request all public documents, including separation agreements and settlements reached with current and former teachers who taught in the Beaufort County School District between January 1, 2017 through the day this request is fulfilled who engaged in misconduct of a sexual nature with district students. We have been researching the district records. Please see the below links responsive to your request:

Brittany Whetzel – no separation agreement or settlement. The District placed Ms. Whetzel on administrative leave on April 12, 2018 and the Superintendent notified the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) of Ms. Whetzel's unprofessional conduct. The State Board of Education summarily suspended her educator certificate on April 24, 2018. Ms. Whetzel resigned from the District on April 23, 2018. On November 13, 2018, the State Board of Education approved the Order of Revocation of Ms. Whetzel's educator certificate.
