2025-2026 Denial of Media Release Form

Throughout the school year, the media and/or CCSD employees and representatives may visit your child's school to cover activities and special events. Students may be highlighted in efforts to promote CCSD achievements. Your child may be photographed, videotaped, audio recorded, and/or interviewed; and may be featured in materials for print, web, video, and social media use (known as Media Coverage.)

If you do not return this form, you hereby grant permission for CCSD employees, representatives, and authorized media organizations to use material featuring your child's image/likeness/voice and his/her art or other creative work.

If you choose to select the Do Not Grant option below, please be aware that your child's image and/or name will not be utilized in any school/district-based recognitions or district-generated media coverage.

This form does not include yearbooks or performance programs. They are covered under FERPA. Please refer to the district's FERPA Notice.
