When Two Vowels Go Walking...

- Short and Long Vowel Sort: Read and sort short and long vowel CVVC words
- Double Vowel Words: Read, Trace, and Rainbow Write the CVVC words
- Build a Word: Cut and paste letters to build CVVC words.
- I Can Spell Double Vowel Words: Use picture to spell CVVC word 2 times
- CVVC Word Families: 2 word family houses on each page, 3 pages. Students brainstorm or build words (provide letter magnets or manipulatives) with the given word families and record on the sheets.
- Double Vowel Mix It, Fix It (2 versions): Unscramble the word, write it correctly in pencil and then in rainbow colors. I recommend providing letter magnets to help students build the words. The first page contains CVVC words, the second contains CCVVC words (blends and digraphs).
- Draw It: Double Vowels! Read the sentences containing double vowel words. Draw a picture to match the sentence.

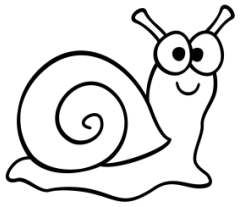
Joan's Neat Things



One hot day, Joan went on the trail. She wanted to see really interesting things. She saw lots of neat things like bees, snails, and toads. She saw wheat and green trees. Joan picked blue flowers that smelled sweet. All of a sudden, it started to rain. Joan got soaked! Joan screamed and groaned. She said, "What a pain. I wish I had my rain coat!" Then Joan peeked in the sky and saw a rainbow. Joan was full of glee! She smiled and said, "This is the best thing I have seen today!"

1. Highlight the double vowel words.
2. Write the double vowel words in the box.
