Your future starts here.

Take control of your career.

At Job Corps, you get hands-on training to start a career. You pick your career path, and we'll give you the skills to make it successful. It doesn't stop there. We'll also help you find a job so that you can hit the ground running after graduation.

What you need to know:

Job Corps is free to low-income 16- through 24-year-olds! Campus living, meals, training, supplies AND a supportive community ... all free.

120+ centers across the country (yep, there's probably one near you!)

You can start as soon as you're ready.

At Job Corps, you'll ...

- Chart your own path (and gain independence along the way!)
- Meet friends and counselors who will encourage you as you train
- Have opportunities to mentor others and get involved with the community
- Get involved on campus through sports, clubs or community service projects
- Connect with employers and build a network of resources

This is not a Wausau School District sponsored activity and the opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the school district or its personnel.

Not sure what you want to do?

You've got choices.
