HART HAWKS

Reach out my children and grab a star.
The road may be rough, and the goal may be far.
But a Hawk never falters when set on his prey,
With great strength and courage, he fights all the way.

Every Hawk is a warrior, faithful and true.
Who knows where he's going and what he must do.
They know they can reach the highest of goals,
For they are smart and tenacious and determined souls.

The Hawk is fair always at work or at play,
And treats everybody with kindness always.
They are honest and trusting and clean in their talk.
They are the greatest of students--I'm proud I'm a Hawk.

Leo B. Hart