Holding on to the Memories

Remember your first football game? How about your first kiss? Wasn't it important to get your first locker? Getting an unexpected "A" in place of the deserved "F" and vowing to study harder were also memories. How about play performances with standing ovations? Unforgettable. How about the worst date you ever had? The most memorable thing about North Thurston High School was the fighting through the crowds on your way to class. Any memory about your friends, family, and events are all special things you kept inside. This theme recognizes the memories held by all of the students at North Thurston High School.

The old North Thurston High School, seen from Sleater-Kinney, lasted from 1955 through 1982. Today, many of the faculty members remain from the old school.

Greetings from the 1992 annual staff. Why are we next to the theme page? We wanted to introduce ourselves as the authors of this book. Annual class was a lot of hard work, and it took much dedication. However, it was a lot of fun! Everything each person did was rewarding in some way or another.

We have high standards, and many times, pages had to be redone. We also set some high goals for ourselves. We wanted to put everyone in the book twice, and we wanted to spell everyone's name correctly. We hope you enjoy the yearbook because a lot of hard work went into it!

Left: Ms. Sharon Hartnett, annual advisor, explains her organizational strategies for annual class at our summer one day workshop where we also swam, hot tubbed, and barbecued.

Ram Cam!

The Class of '93 show their spirit and enthusiasm as they are now leaders of North Thurston.

Music Maestros

The Symphony and String Orchestra must be prepared to play any piece that Mr. Ian Edlund passes out. All orchestra players must have a positive attitude towards fellow orchestra members and their competitors.

Symphony and String Orchestra had a contest that was held at Capital High School. Once a year, both orchestras get together to play a piece that Mr. Edlund selects for them.

"I like all the different sounds of the string instruments. I like all sorts of pieces, especially the challenging ones."

Chorus Line

North Thurston Choir is a quality program directed by Mr. Randy Poff. There are three oustanding choirs. First there is the girls' choir, which is mostly freshman and others who didn't audition for Concert Chorale. They sang songs of sifferent languages such as Japanese, Latin, German, and African. In March they went to Kelso for group contest and Capital High School for Solo and Ensemble contest. During Christmas they sang at Capital Mall.

The next choir is Concert Chorale. Students must tryout for Concert Chorale out of girls' choir. The Concert Chorale has sung at the fall and winter concerts, graduation, both group and Solo and Ensemble.

The third choir is Jazz. Students must tryout for Jazz out of Concert Chorale. Jazz choir sings mainly Jazz, modern ballads, and some Madrigals. They sang all over the community for Christmas. GO! FIGHT! WIN!

The varsity cheerstaff, as usual, had an outstanding year. They started out their season by performing in the Lakefair parade, which they received 1st place in. Several weeks later they went to cheer camp at Central Washington University in Ellensburg. They spent a very tiring, hard, fun, and educational week there. While there, they received the Leadership Award, and the Pep Paddle. They practiced daily the rest of the summer, to make sure to be ready for the upcoming football season. They had very exciting and busy football and basketball seasons as they cheered both teams to play-offs. They worked very hard all year to make sure that each assembly and all school activities were properly put together.

There were two squads added to this year: the Pep Squad and the Rally Squad. The Pep Squad, who cheered for the girls events volleyball and basketball, and the Rally Squad who cheered for wrestling. They both had a great season and a lot of fun.

Let's Dance

This year's dance team had an excellent year. The year long season began almost immediately following try-outs. The team made many appearances such as the Lakefair parade, the camp at the University of Puget Sound, many elementary schools, and of course, the half time shows for basketball and football games.

The year started out great. The team made excellent improvements as the season progressed. Ending the year, the team put on their two annual fund-raising events: a dance clinic for kids, and the Tolo dance. The team had a very fulfilling season.

Puttin' On A Show

"It is not as easy as it looks," captain Kim Nicholson said, "especially since we had a whole new team except for two returning members." A lot of time was put into practicing and coming up with new routines.

What many people don't know is that the flag team is part of the band. Without much input from advisor Mr. Terry Turner, they worked independently. The team feels this year went pretty well considering the team was so new. Next year they hope to participate in the pep-assemblies.

Summer Memories

Summer...what does it mean to you? North Thurston students had many different ideas:

A Starry Night

On October 23, 1992, the Ram band led the Homecoming parade with a drumming beat. Followed by the band were groups such as dance team, cheerleaders, and floats to represent each class. This year's theme for the floats was famous plays.

As the parade marched into South Sound Stadium, the Homecoming game went underway. Starting out the game was a 97-yard return by Mike Sellers. Other touchdowns were made by Jason Williams and Brian Brennan.

The half time show added great excitement to the crowd. The court was presented. Britt Waldum was crowned queen and Steve Lim king.

The Ram team returned and played strong. The final score was North Thurston 36, Bellarmine 10.

Star Search '92

In June 1992 the dance team, Sparkle X's 3, had a chance to make a dream come true. They were interviewed after a dance routine for the television show, Star Search. They impressed the judges so much that they were sent to Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas, Nevada, where they were informed that they had made it on Star Search.

Their first competition was a group called Counterculture. They easily defeated them and went on to face the reigning champions, Yamoto. At first they tied, so it was then, the audience's turn to vote. Afterwards, they were chosen as the new champions.

"This was a once-in-a-life time experience."

-Sparkle X's 3

Juniors Heather Shanahan, Shelley DeBoer, and Lori Albright are greeted by Ed McMahon after competing on Star Search. Sparkle X's 3 got a lot of support from the school; they even performed at an outdoor assembly before they went to compete.

We are not now that strength which in old days moved earth and heaven, that which we are,
we are: One equal temper of heroic hearts, Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will to strive, to seek, to find,
and not to yield.

Alfred, Lord Tennyson

Assistant Principal, Mr. Tony Hawkins

Caught off guard, the new principal, Ms. Karen Eitreim smiles for the photographer. She took over Dr. Jim Koval when he took a position at district office.

Assistant Principal Ms. Ann Allen checks her busy schedule to make yet another appointment. She is in charge of sophomores, ESL, works with college student teachers, staff evaluation, in and out of district transfers, advises the Peer Tutoring Program, and National Honor Society.

What's a big sister to do when one of her little brothers graduates (besides feel a little old)? I thought I might give you some advice: whatever you do, make sure you are truly happy and never lose track of who you are or what you stand for. I admire your motivation, courage and intelligence. It's quite inspiring. However, don't forget to RELAX once in a while. After all, it's not worth it if you can't enjoy it.
GOOD LUCK AND HAVE FUN !!
KEEP ON SKIING !!

Love your bigsis, Kristin

My son Brian,

You will always be a winner in my mind.

Love,
Mom

Mike,

Throughout the years, we've been through good times and bad, but remained friends through everything. I'm very proud of you and as you grow up, I wish you the best of luck in all that you do.

Love always,
Maria

Rob,
We've always been proud of you and we're even more proud of you now.
Love,
Mom, Dad, Jennifer, and Natalie

Senior Jeff Evans studies his favorite subject of electronics with the advantage of using a computer.

The commons (social pit) was the main gathering for students. Things such as the Club Fair, lunches, and concerts were held in this vicinity. This year the commons were more crowded than last year due to the huge freshman class that arrived.

Top Left: Juniors Robert Paganini and Rebecca Weaver were ready for another day of mind-filling facts about their history.

College Bound

The Running Start Program is a unique partnership between South Puget Sound Community College and North Thurston High School. Juniors and seniors from North Thurston attend college classes to earn high school credits that are required to graduate earlier than expected and to earn college credits as well.

The Running Start Student is offered a full range of vocational and academic courses to further their education at SPSCC.

"It allows us to take classes more in depth because it's on a college level than those offered here at North Thurston."

An Apple A Day

Senior Maelca Malave is a part of the Apple Academy. She shows Mrs. Barbara Camels' spanish class just how easy it is to learn.

The future of education lies in our hands. The teaching academy is a program designed for high school students to get a taste of the teaching profession. It consists of two periods: one to teach students and the other period gives students a chance to teach inside the classroom.

"The teaching adademy is a wonderful class. This class prepares us for a career in a leadership position."

Working Hands On

The Skills Center, which is located in Tumwater, is where students go to learn a trade with hands-on training for a particular skill such as culinary arts. This is where students learn to prepare food and set up for a resturant type of business. Another example is where students learn carpentry by working on particular projects. This gave the students experience and prepared them in the job field of their choice.

The students got there by the the school bus and arrived at the Skills Center for their classes either in the morning, afternoon, or all day. The bus picked them up at 7:40 for the morning classes or around 10:40 for the afternoon classes. It helped the students get acquainted with the world outside of school and to understand what it is all about.

Getting ready for his welding session, junior Jason Dressel, puts on his head gear. Jason is also a member of the men's wrestling team.

Students who took the PSAT at the Bower Center during their junior year and scored high on it were not only testing how well they can do on the "real" SAT, but also how much they had achieved learning. Their reward in return would be making it as a commended scholar, or better yet, a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholars Award!

The semi-finalists are announced during their senior year and soon after that, the final decision is made which determines whether or not the award is given to that individual.

Glancing up at the photographer, senior Geoff Warner takes his time for an unexpected pose. Geoff made it as a semi-finalist for the National Merit Scholars award.

Learning Ram Style

The ESL (English as a Second Language) students came from various parts of the world such as Korea, Vietnam, The Phillipines, Cambodia, Laos, Samoa, Mexico, and Bolivia. They came to the United States for different reasons. For instance, to join their family, to get out of refugee camps, to immigrate, to escape persecutions or revolutions, and perhaps to have a better life.

The ESL teachers, Mrs. Margaret Edwards and Mrs. Julia Collins, taught their students English in the two portables, USA and EL Savador, which are located behind the schools building. Their purpose was so that their students could mainstream into the school's curriculum and to be able to function in society.

Mrs. Julia Collins and senior Thao Vo, who assists Mrs. Margaret Edwards in the afternoon, talk over a homework assignment that was due.

During her sixth period class, Mrs. Margaret Edwards and senior Be Nguyen, work together on the computer in Chad.

Junior Sung Me Hwang, runs into her first period class which is in Mrs. Margaret's ESL portable USA. Sung Me has immigrated with her family to the United States since last summer.

The Creative Touch

After zealously working in Mrs. Nancy Wilson's art class, sophomore Pam Bailey washes up at the counter in the sink.

Working hard on a drawing is senior Peter Bothwell.

Admiring her well-done job on the ceramic pottery is junior Julie Weber.

Learning from a broad range of creative studies, such as color and design, calligraphy, painting, pottery, drawing, textile and design, printmaking, and sculpture, the students opened up their artistic ability by displaying their talents in their work in class.

The teachers, Mrs. Debbie Vanderhoof and Mrs. Nancy Wilson, kept their students optimistic about art and taught them how they may represent themselves by personalizing their projects to show their feelings, emotions, and the way they see the world. Selected groups of art pieces was shown in displays in the halls near the counseling center and were very catching to the eye.

Society Of Honor

Pride. That's it. The National Honor Society prides itself on four major principles: 1. Character 2. Service 3. Leadership and 4. Scholarship. Throughout the school year the members promoted these basic beliefs through their actions and thoughts.

Current members gained membership by having and maintaining a 3.4 or above grade point average. They were then sent applications to be in this eclectic club. Prospective members not only had to maintain their G.P.A. but also had to have been active in the school and the community.

Induction night was held last November, and a bowling party at Westside Lanes in December, and a lock-in January at the school were some activites. In the spring, members participated in a community service, the Honor Society also sponsored the Honors and Awards night in May. With over 100 members, they were one of the largest clubs at school.

The International club's name was changed this year from the Foreign Language Club. Leaders felt the old name sounded like it would exclude people and that is not what they wanted. The International Club is for everyone!

Club meetings are held once a month where they enjoy learning about cultures and languages of nations around the world.

Many parties are also planned throughout the year to celebrate the holidays and festivals of these countries. Some of these include a welcoming party for new members in September, a Halloween costume party, International Thanksgiving for exchange students, and a Christmas party where members could learn about many of the different ways Christmas is celebrated throughout the world. The Chinese new year and many other holidays are celebrated and learned about also.

So come and join the fun with the International Club.

"I enjoy just getting together, eating food, and having a lot of fun."
-James Plummer, junior

"I like playing games, eating, and learning different languages."

To the Extreme

This year the North Thruston Ski Club, led by advisor Mr. Evan Humphreys, got off to a slow start. The main purpose of the club this year was to keep the members up to date about the newest ski areas, techniques, and equipment. The club did not have a big ski trip, as it has had in years past. "We hope next year to have more activities," said Mr. Evan Humphreys.

Lights, Camera, Action!!!

Are you video camera shy? The members of the broadcast journalism class definitely aren't. The class brought out shows which were featured on the local television Channel 31 on Wednesday nights and Saturday mornings.

The class was led by Mr. Bill Bassett who organized the class so that each person's ideas could be put on N.T.V. The class had a slow start, but caught on quickly. This is what Peter Evens had to say about the class, "It's fun because it enables us to be creative and experience working together."

This year's Rampage staff had an outstanding year putting out the school newspaper. Each student put in a great effort by submitting in articles to interest everyone. The class tried to make some changes this year by adding more color, opinions, and photos.

Though this year's staff was a brand new one, they still came through to have one of their best years yet. "The whole class this year tried really hard to make the paper one that more people at North Thurston would read," stated editor, Beth Carlsen.

Striving For Perfection

Debate, or the more sophisticated term, Forensics, is a form of public interaction which includes Cross Examination Debate, Lincoln Douglas Debate, and Individual Events. By competing in these events, various skills were learned and developed: analysis, logic, organization, public speaking, and argumentation research.

The team participated in all of these events at tournaments held on high school and college campuses throughout Western Washington. Many of these tournaments were invitationals, which can include fifty or more schools. Other tournaments included league contests through which the team tied with other schools in the district for a place at the state competition.

At tournaments, members competed in individual events such as Oratory, Oral Interpretation, Dramatic Interpretation,Extemporanous, Expository, and Humorous Interpretation.

After their first tournament in January, at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, the team unfortunately got stuck on the on ramp for the freeway for a couple of hours coming home. A week later, during finals, the power went out while a debate was taking place. Dauntless, they continued on with flashlights to finish their debate.

Seniors Somer Weygandt, Clinton Brock, and Elizabeth Semasko inform students about various aspects of FFA at the Club Fair. The Fair is a good way for students to learn about FFA.

Fun for all? Yes! National FFA organization, previously known as Future Farmers of America does not hold the same connotations it once had. It is a organization of students studying agriculture-related concerns. These careers are not typical farming occupations, but rather occupations such as landscaping, greenhouse operations and management, natural resources, business, biology and similar fields.

Last September at the Western Washington Fair held in Puyallup, the Dairy Products and Poultry Judging teams from North Thurston both received second in state.

Members have also competed in Floriculture, Public Speaking, and Parlimentary Procedures ritual contest. Two members, president Darcy Imus and vice president Clinton Brock, and their advisor, Dan White, attended the National Convention in Kansas City, Missouri held November 10-14. Darcy was on the Dairy Products team, placing fifth nationally and third individually. Clinton Brock was on Poultry Judging team placing eighth nationally and 28th individually.

Helping Out

The Community Service Club at North Thurston High School is a great club and does a wonderful job serving the community and helping others.

They set great examples for young students and teenagers by doing community things, such as going and donating to the Salvation Army.

Some events of the Community Service Club this year were going to the Salvation Army and working at the Bread and Roses for the homeless.

The club was formed in order to organize a cultural celebration. This was to make people aware of different cultures.

Helping Hands

S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) is a club run by students who feel strongly about the damages of drinking and driving. Their concern is to send their message about how serious it is to drive under the influence of alcohol. The group usually meets in Mrs. Bobbie Andreas's portable, Uraguay. She is the S.A.D.D. advisor.

The club members have participated in activities that help students to be aware of the influences of alcohol on the driver's ability to control their car while being intoxicated. They have sold S.A.D.D. keychains, given students quarters on prom cards to make calls when assistance was needed and made posters to warn people of the dangers of drinking and driving.

S.A.D.D.'s Advisor Mrs. Bobbie Andreas communes with her activity group members about different ideas to fight against drunk driving.

Executive Committee: Chris Brown, Emily Walker, Misti Schnase

phomore Chris Brown shows what cleaning up really means. .V.E. is a very important club because it helps keep our enviroment n.

Students against a vanishing earth (SAVE) is one of North Thurston's newer clubs from last year. This groups main goal is to make students aware that they need to be more environmentally conscious. Students started by putting paper in recycle boxes located in each classroom and by recycling aluminum soda cans located throughout the cafeteria.

This group did their part in helping the environment by adopting a well, purchasing two acres of rain forest in Brazil, taking a trip to Wolfhaven and much, much more.

This years SAVE officers were Emily Walker, Chris Brown, and Matt Russell with advisor Vicky Lamoreaux.

"It's been hard to get people interested and involved, but with the people we do have we've done a lot for the environment."

-Emily Walker, sophomore

"It's a real worth while club because we're trying to help the environment and get some of the problems out in the open, so we can take care of them."

-Chris Brown, sophomore

Aerobics For The Mind

Knowledge Bowl is a club that has mind competitions. The competitions are just like playing jeopardy. There are three teams that consist of six to eight people with forty-five questions per round. There are four rounds per competition. Tournaments are held about three to four times a year. They first go to districts and if they place in the top four they go to state. Knowledge Bowl placed first in state on a computer competition earlier this school year.

"Knowledge Bowl was a fun and learning experience. The teams worked well together in competitions, and we did very well."
-Travis Yonker, senior Adding Up

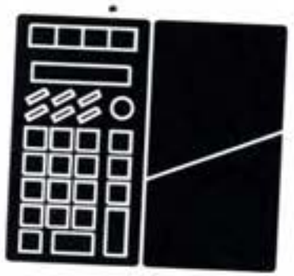
Math Club is a group of students that compete in a yearly spring competition. A team consists of four people and only two teams are sent to competition. If a team does well in regionals then they go to state as a team or individually.

"Our success in the upcoming tournament will depend on our unity. I think unity is our best chance in placing. This year we have a lot of talented people that will help us in April."
-Melvin Pusateri, senior

Senior Melvin Pusateri studies as he gets ready for competition this spring. He is one of eight students hoping to do well and make a name for North Thurston.



Fearless Fire and Safety

Fire and Safety is a group of selected students handpicked by Mr. Tony Hawkins to go to classes periodically to do earthquake drills.

During fire drills, they are all assigned a post. So, when they hear the alarm they report to their post to make sure all students get out of the building safely.

They also inspect rooms and other parts of the building for any hazard to make sure this school is safe.

Senior Doug Walker inspects the fire extinguisher to see if it is working properly.

Every period there is a number of students who walk around inspecting the bathrooms and locker rooms to make sure there is no one vandalizing them or breaking into lockers. They also watch the parking lots to make sure cars are safe, and people are parking in the correct places.

"It is a fun class, and it gives you the feeling like the whole parking lot is in the palm of your hand."

Dazzling DECA

Distributive Educational Clubs of America is a community-oriented club which encourages leadership and social awareness. Its main goal is to develop business leaders through competition in different areas, such as marketing, officer training workshops, and conferences.

The DECA club members, along with their advisor, Ms. Ronna Reed, held many activities throughout the school year. They had fashion shows for Homecoming, Tolo, and May Dance. Along with these special events, DECA also puts on the annual Christmas fashion show at South Sound Mall. Another promotion DECA participates in annually is the gift wrapping booth located at the South Sound Mall. DECA proved to be another great success this year.

DECA is always open to new members who want to enhance their business background.

Fabulous FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America is a national club for students interested in business. While in FBLA, students have the opportunity to participate in regional, state, and national conferences.

FBLA helps to prepare its members for the business world outside the high school scene. It gives the students the hands-on experiences they need to further themselves in entrepreneurship. They become involved in business in the field and in the classroom. The club also brings in business people from the community and gives the FBLA members a chance to interact and ask any questions they may be curious about.

As they progress, students are able to compete in the following competition events, such as word processing, keyboarding applications, impromptu speaking, business law, FBLA creed, job interviews, business communications, business procedures, business calculations, economics, business graphics, accounting, and parliamentary procedures.

This year has been great for everyone and we hope all of you have fun in your adventures throughout the business arena.

"We will strive for unity and understanding as a school and as a community." These words, taken from the Preamble and the Cultural Constitution, exemplify the club of Human Relations. Throughout the year, Human Relations planned various assemblies and fund-raisers. The assemblies included the Adopt-A-Family assembly in December, the Asian and Pacific Island assembly in January, a Women's Appreciation assembly in March, a Hispanic celebration in April, and a big cultural celebration in May. In November, the club sponsored a Turkey Drive to raise money for the food drive. The club, open to everyone, is based on interaction in the school and is working to promote a better awareness of cultural difference. It has done this through the activities they have sponsored.

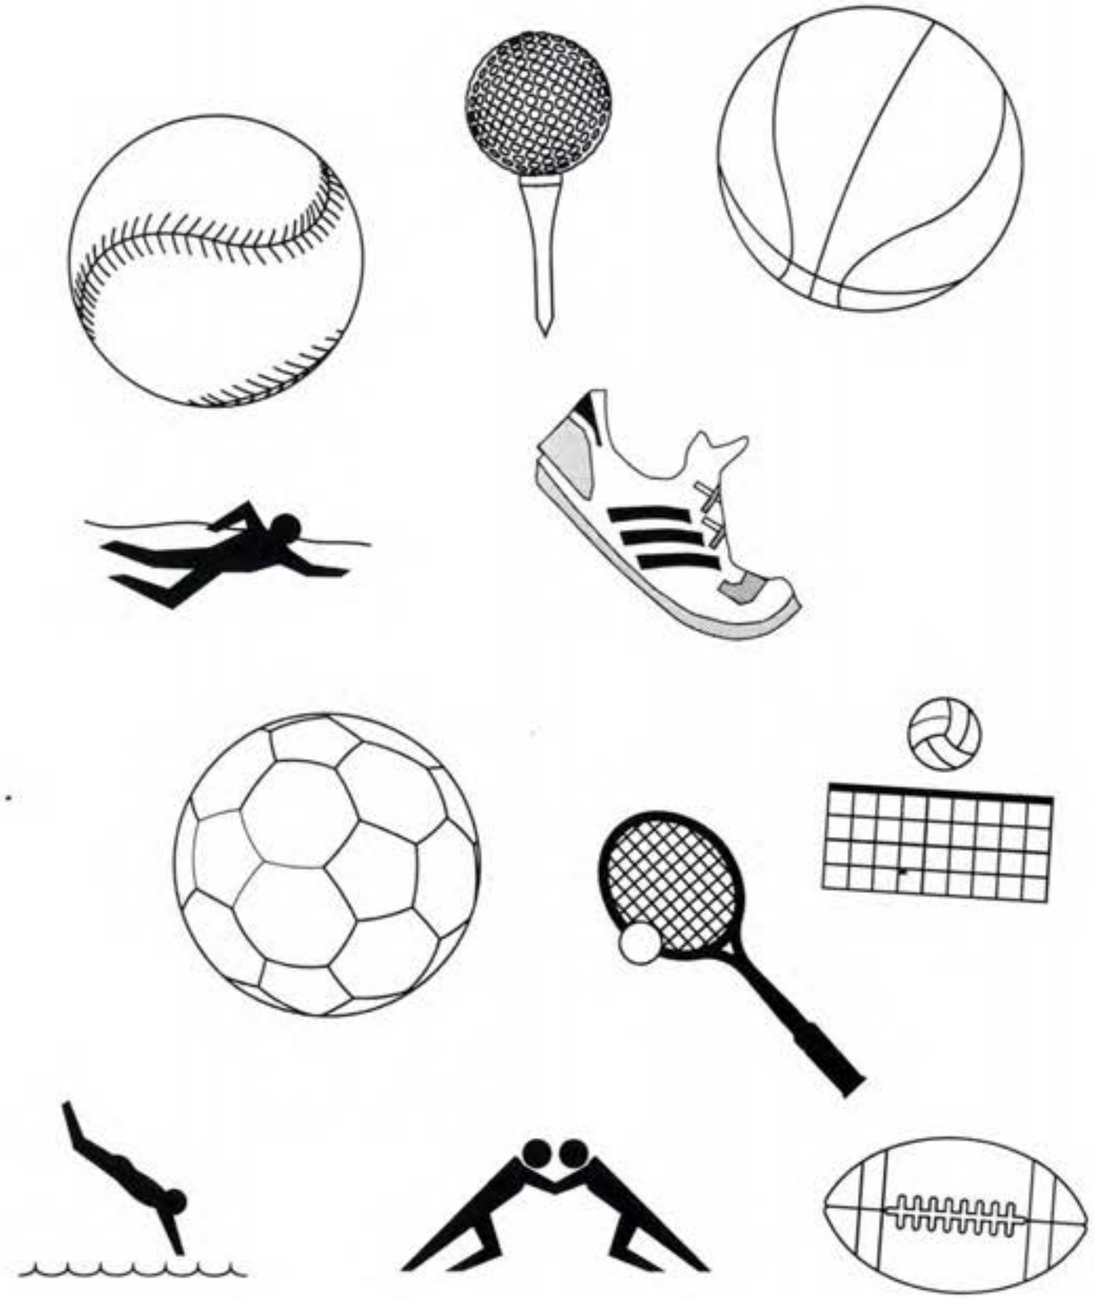
THROUGH THE EYES OF THE RAM



ALWAYS HIT, NEVER QUIT

Throughout the years, the Rams of North Thurston have been known for their vicious hitting. They set the tempo for the season by beating cross town rival, Timberline, and by keeping the high school's expectations.

Throughout the rest of the year, the 1992 football season was headed by the captains Joel Mounts, Brian Brennan, Kelly Hanes, and Mike Sellers. The Ram football team, who was led by "The Coach of the Year," Rockey Patchin, went to the playoffs. One of the greatest upsets in the history of North Thurston was beating the Number One ranked in the league, as well as tenth in the nation, the South Kitsap Wolves. The score was North Thurston 14, South Kitsap 10. This gave North Thurston the league title and number one seat in the playoffs.

One week later North Thurston took on the Mariner High School Marauders in the first playoff game and beat them: North Thurston 28, Mariner High School 7. They later lost to the Puyallup High School Vikings.

FOLLOW THE LEADERS

The Junior Varsity Rams ended with a 6-2 season. Coaches Joe Beltico, Tim Brown, and Rennie Leach led a team with strong passing and defense. The JV Rams had two losses, and they could have won both of the games. They were lost in the last minutes of the game.

"We should have played South Kitsap because I know we could have beat them."
-Mark Delacruz, sophomore

"Our football season was very successful. We need to stay positive, work hard in the off season, encourage all players,and thank Coach Patchin for being positive with all of the players."

Coaches Dan Coleman and Bill Mendelson led the freshmen Rams to a 7-0 record. They were the Narrows League Champions. Their most exciting game was against Bellarmine. They came back from an 8-6 deficit at halftime to win, North Thurston 13, Bellarmine 8. The offense put together one of the most memorable drives of the season and finished it with a touchdown by Kareem Williams.

"I thought I had a great season because all the players put in one hundred percent."
-Kareem Williams

"All the players worked really hard, and that resulted in our winning season. You can't be a winner unless you act and work like one."

SERVE, SET, AND SPIKE

The North Thurston Women's Volleyball Team went on the take the league championship this season with a 16-0 record. The true talent of the team was shown at the district tournament when they went on to take third place and qualified for state beating the Auburn Trojans and the Rogers Rams. The Junior Varsity also had an outstanding season by taking second place with a 14-2 record. The girls are a promising group of players for the program. The C-team, also a promising team, finished off the season with an overall record of 13-2.

KICKING WITH THE BEST

Beneath the supervision of Varsity Coach Gary Dunn and Junior Varsity Coach Nani Duvall, the women's soccer team was taught to put forth their best effort and to keep at it.

Coach Gary Dunn comments about the team, "This year's team was a hard working group. They played well and came close, but we had our troubles scoring." He continues, "Our season started with a good win against Wilson. Then we lost some key players to injury. We just didn't recover."

Senior Shawn Nicholson runs ahead of his opponent from Wilson. Even though they lost, they gave it their all.

1992 was what people in the coaching profession refer to as a re-building year. Six of the top seven varsity runners from the 1991 team either graduated or transferred to another school. Only three girls returned from that team. As a result, their goals were oriented more toward building interest in the Cross Country Program, rather than competing for a league title.

Coach Backman comments about the team, "Despite a rather dismal record, the people involved in the program had many positive experiences and are better people for having participated in Cross Country."

IN THE SWING

The Varsity constructed a very fine season for themselves, winning the league with a 15-0 record. They beat the perennial league contender, Bellarmine, twice during the regular season. They also knocked off an improved Timberline team to seal the championship title.

The Rams competed well at the league championship tournament, sending teams Todd Lash and Jared Brodin, and Sean Weston and Matt Simons to the district tournament in May. Both teams did great with the leadership of Coach Diane Weston.

TAKING IT TO THE HOOP

This year, the Women's Basketball team started off slow then finished very strong. The Varsity had great team play. They were led by captains Tonya Larson and Tawnya Miller. One of the highlights of the season was destroying Stadium: North Thurston 80, Stadium 3.

Dena Niles took over the job of coaching the Junior Varsity team. Players said her coaching style was different but effective.

The freshmen team had great encouragement from the coaching staff.

MAKING RACKET!

The girls' tennis team, Varsity and Junior Varsity members, started with try-outs at the beginning of March. After the team was formed, they started to play matches against other schools such as Bellarmine, Foss, Lincoln, Timberline, Wilson, and Stadium. Twenty-five girls started the season off, unfortunately, many schools didn't have a large Junior Varsity team which caused a few girls to drop out. However, that didn't stop the team from giving up! They kept right on going!

Due to the bad weather, the season was cut short, not allowing the team to play each opponent twice. The team won most of their matches and lost only two to Bellarmine and Wilson. The girls' tennis teams' coaches, Teri Wallace and Diane Weston, were very proud of their swinging success!

Aiming high to hit the ball is junior Charlyn Chauvin. The girls' tennis team won their match against Stadium.

After a match with Stadium, freshman Andria Malmin warmly shakes her opponent's hand while junior Maria Ortega watches. The tennis match was held at North Thurston's tennis court which is located near the students' parking lot.

THE SWING OF THINGS

The best way to describe the North Thurston Rams Fastpitch team is "We don't get mad, we get even." After losing to South Kitsap, North Thurston beat them the next time around. The Rams didn't need to get mad at across town rival, Timberline, because they beat them both times up. The Varsity Rams were first place in Narrows League, and they have a good chance of going to State. The Junior Varsity and "C" team were undefeated during their season.

THREE UP THREE DOWN

What sweet success our Ram Baseball Team has given us in the past. The Baseball program has always been on top at Thurston. This year, we were taken on by a different Varsity coach....Barry Traynor.

Mr. Traynor has been the J.V. coach for many years. Upon the Retirement of Coach Jim Fouts, Barry took over. With his abilities and leadership, the Rams had another Successful year.

GOAL SEEKERS

The Men's Soccer Team hit a barrier when they faced Bellarmine. Other than that, the Rams demolished the rest of the Narrows League. Coaches, Gary Dunn and his two sons, Jason and James, have contributed to the mental and physical growth of Rams' soccer. Additional leadership was provided by team captains Todd Lash and Mike Plakos. Congratulations!

DRIVING FOR SUCCESS

The North Thurston Golf Team had a dramatic start to their season. Their first match, the team tied with Wilson and won in a playoff that didn't count as a win. There was a tight battle for medalist honors among the top three all year.

"Russ, Brian, and I were evenly matched throughout the year. With many underclassmen in the ranks, practice and dedication will benefit the team in years to come."
-Roman Deeds, senior

Changing The Rules

Sadie Hawkins is a girl ask guy dance, which is "changing the rules" of tradition where guys asks girls. The dance was held on January 9, 1993 in the commons. The theme gave a little Spanish spice to the dance. Sadie Hawkins was sponsored by the Foreign Language Club.

For this fun event, everyone gathers in the commons to dance. The dance is held annually. The clothes are casual, and the Sadies tradition is to wear the same shirts or sweaters.

Bottom: Seniors Roman Deeds and Shontina Jones were arrested and put in jail by their friends.

Juniors Sean O'Donnell, Erik Graudins, and senior Andrea Quaintance draw out wanted posters to have someone they know arrested.

Dancing 'Til Dawn

Junior Stephanie Funk and Sophomore Damon Duggins seem to be busy dancing as they pay attention more to each other than the camera.

Junior James Plummer and Sophomore Katie Tarr seem to be enjoing themselves as they embrace each other throughout the night.

"A Whole New World" from the Disney movie "Aladdin" was the theme for the dance. Tolo is a semi-formal version Sadie Hawkins, where the girl asks that special guy. This dance was held on March 27, 1993, also in the commons. Tolo was sponsored by our very own dance team.

Senior Jason Topinka and Junior Wendy Hochalter are caught in each others arms as they dance to the theme song "A Whole New World" from the movie Alladin.

Tolo is not just a place to dance, but a place to socialize and to see how everyone is dressed up. Tolo is A semi-formal dance.

Midnight Masquerade
May Dance 1993

May Dance 1993 would be the last time the Class of '93 would be able to ask that special someone, buy that spectacular dress, and walk through the doors of North Thurston all decked out. Midnight Masquerade was the theme, and the North Thurston gym was beautifully transformed into red roses and masks. The night was magical and romantic. Couples cuddled together as the King, Brian Brennan, and Queen, Nancy Gifford were announced.

The night was a complete success. Cascade Photography did the pictures with a beautiful red, black, and white backround. The music was played by Sound Presentation with added features such as a fifteen foot video screen, two laser videos, and a roaming cameraman to capture all of the special memories.

The Best Get Better

The best got better this year, academically speaking. With over ninety seniors receiving Top Honors on Graduation Night, the class of '93 had the highest number of Honor students since the Top Honor System was initiated three years ago.

There are three levels of Top Honors: Honors, High Honors, and Highest Honors. Honors refers to students with a grade point average of 3.25 to 3.49. High Honors refers to the students with a grade point average of 3.5 to 3.74. The Highest Honors goes to those who maintain a grade point average of 3.75 to 4.0.

Honors students receive a silver cord at graduation, High Honors students receive a gold cord, and Highest Honors students receive a gold medallion for all of their efforts over the past four years.

These students exemplify the academic spirit that thrives at North Thurston. All these students work hard for what they want to achieve.

Freshman Tina Olson took part in gymnastics at Olympia High School while attending school at North Thurston. Olson was qualified to go to state. She placed fortieth out of three-hundred participants. She has been in gymnastics for eight years, and the vault is her favorite event.

"I wish North Thurston had gymnastics."
-Tina Olson, freshman

North Thurston is honored to congratulate this years Lakefair Princess, Katrina Maanao. Katrina's reign is for an entire year, and she represents the Olympia area by going to parades and other community functions as far away as Vancouver, Canada. Capitalarians presented her with a $750 scholarship fund for being Lakefair Princess.

"I'm honored to have the opportunity to represent North Thurston and my community in the Lakefair events."

EDITORS MESSAGE

After months and months of work, the yearbook is done. Hardwork, dedication, pride--that is what the 1993 annual staff showed this year. From day one, we worked together as a team. Everyone communicated well and the closeness of the staff was unbelievable. Thanks for putting up with me guys!

My biggest thanks goes to Sharon Hartnett. What can I say? We sure had one heck of a year. For being a first year advisor, you did a fantastic job. Your superb leadership and organization skills surely stood out and made the difference this year. I don't want to thank you only as a teacher, but as a friend. All in all you're a wonderful person. You did a tremendously outstanding job this year and I know the years to come will be even better.

I also would like to thank my Assistant Editor Doug Walker. You were such a big help. I don't know how I would of handled the year without you. Thanks for taking charge.
As I say good- bye, I would like to thank the annual staff for the good and the bad times we had together. I surely will miss everyone and I will always remember each and every one of you. I love you guys. Remember, keep 'Holding on to the Memories' because I will.
