1965-66 . . . at Washington . . . a Full Year . . .

Foreword

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

The experiences we have had within these walls this year, have been joyous ones. In this yearbook the Washingtonian Staff presents the people, the organizations and the activities that have contributed to this end.

There will come a day, to be sure, when this book will be taken from the shelf and each page carefully studied; and the readers will hope to recapture the things that meant so much to them.

With this in mind, we have tried to put into words and pictures some of the beauty of this wonderful year, that the memory may bring us joy forever.

. . . A Memory

Dedication

Mr. John Y. Moreland

Mr. Moreland congratulates Cadet Street.

Dedication

The class of 1966, your class, Mr. Moreland, proudly dedicates this edition of the WASHINGTONIAN to you. We came to Washington together; and throughout these five long years, you have been to us a source of inspiration, guidance, understanding and love.

With your subtle humor, you were always down to earth and approachable. Your relationships were steadfast, and you have manifested a genuine interest in people and causes.

Your job has been a tedious one and we know that this small gesture can in no way repay you for the many trials and sacrifices you have endured in our behalf. But as we go forth into the world, we plan to go as symbols of all for which you have labored, in an attempt to demonstrate our appreciation for your untiring efforts and devotions.

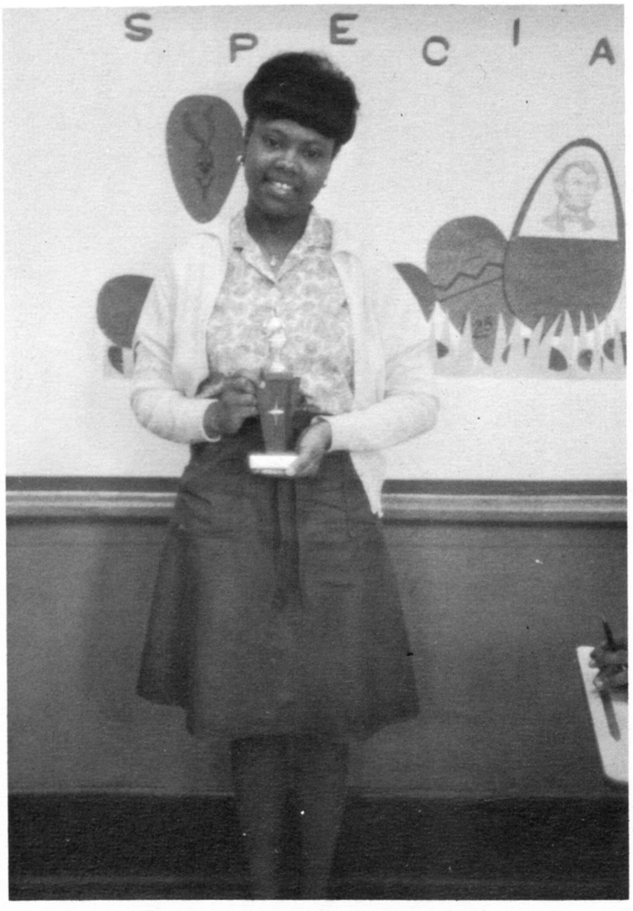
Elaine Turner diligently tries to comprehend the use of the Automatic Calculator.



Wilma Harrington displays her trophy for excellence in oratory.

Shirley Cain works hard on maps, for she knows rewards come in the end.

. . . Accent on the Individual

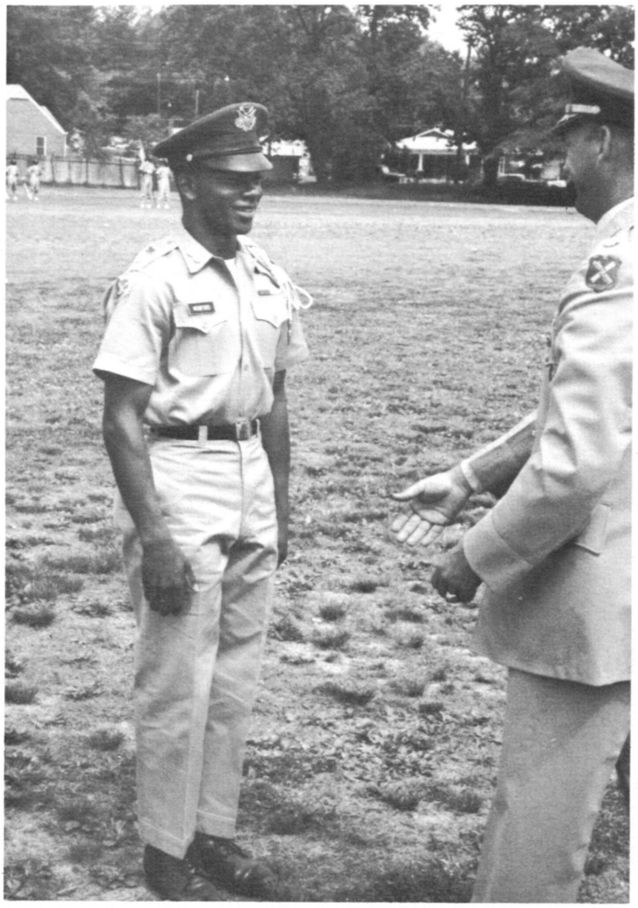
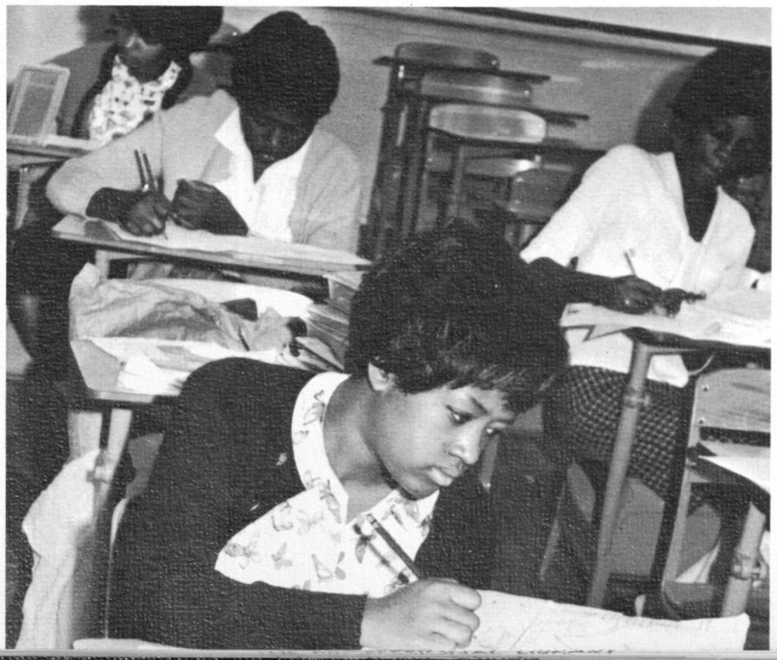
Haywood Solomon renders an inspiring address.



Jesse Munford smiles enthusiastically as he awaits his saber.

Conscientious endeavor is seldom unrewarded.



Academic Studies Promote . . .

Physics students try to conquer new experimental material.

The library is a place where knowledge can be found. These student aides assist in preparing books for usage.

. . . Knowledge and Maturity

Russian students listen and supply the proper responses in the language laboratory.

Jesse Munford listens to Instructor M. E. Calloway in Industrial Arts class.

Art students display their creative talent.

Friendships Add Pleasure . . .

It's always fun to get together.

Right: one of the new additions at Washington High is the beautiful Satellite Dining Room. Here Seniors display their delight with the food as well as the surroundings.

Below: All thumbs point toward the center. It's none other than "little bit," showing off.

. . . to New Experiences

A group of seniors "just posing"

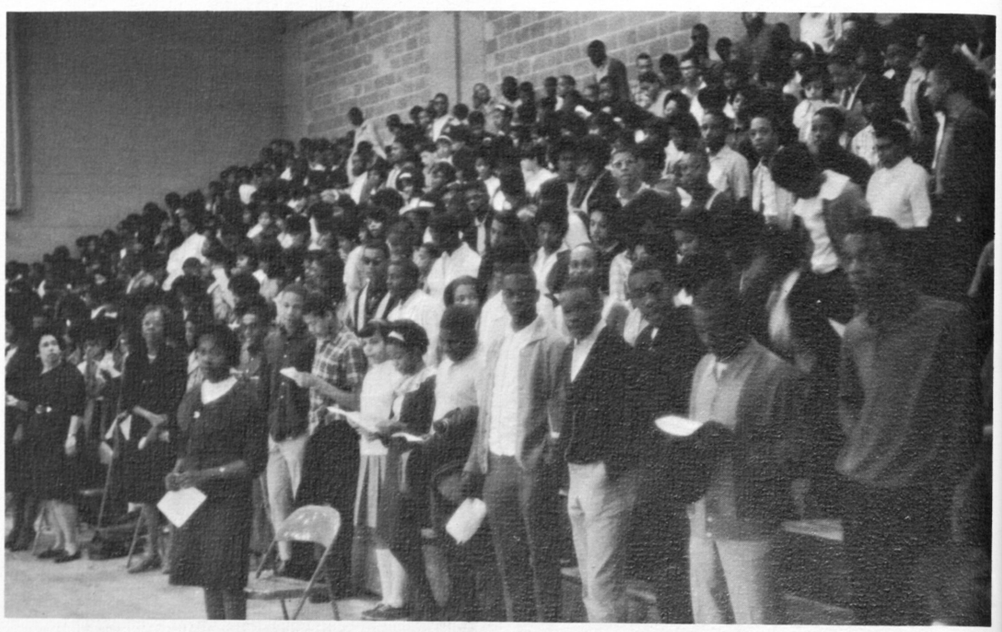
A scene from the Junior-Senior Prom. The juniors gave the seniors a very gala affair.

School Spirit Inspires . . .

These very lively, vivacious and exuberant young ladies are our cheerleaders. They play a leading role in maintaining our school spirit. Because of their unchanged spirit the bulldogs in many instances were victorious.

Miss Washington (Gloria Manson) and Miss Junior (Paula McGhee) congratulate each other after their victories.



After putting our hearts and souls into one of our rousing pep sessions, we pause to sing our school song.

. . . Enthusiastic Loyalty

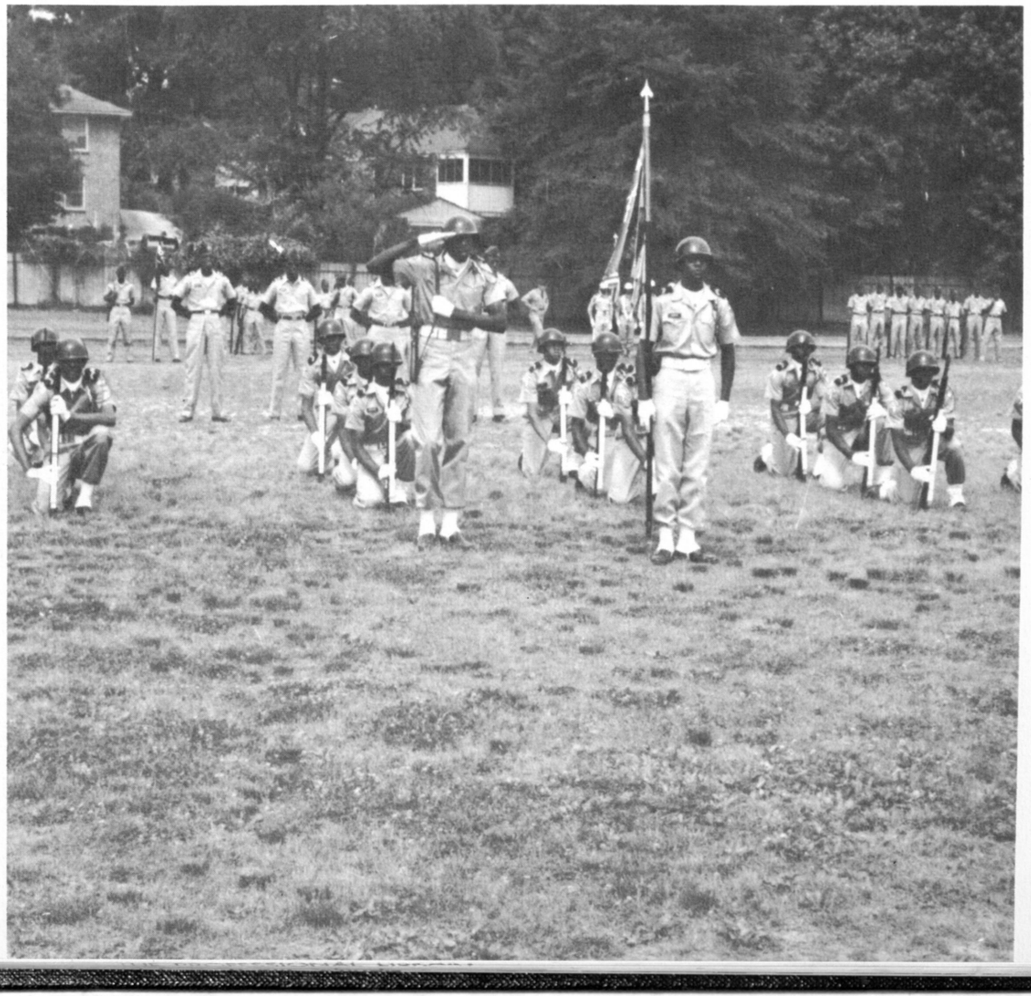
Miss R.O.T.C. (Omega Tucker), is being escorted by Lt. Col. Lynn Whatley and Sgt. Maj. Marion King at the annual "Saber Day."



The Drill Team was winner of second place in city-wide competition.

Participation in Activities . . .

Participation in activities stimulates these students to cooperate with the student government program. These are the members of the student government cabinet for 1965-66. Judge E. S. Brock, installing the student cabinet. The members are: Haywood Solomon, Pres.; Franklin Huff, Stanley Henson, Gloria Manson, Kenneth Holloway, Plemon Whatley, Rose Marie King and Shirley Duhart.

"Dancing is an Art." Expression in song and dance is seen as these members of the dance group perform to the tune "Walk on the Wild Side".

. . . Stimulates Creativeness

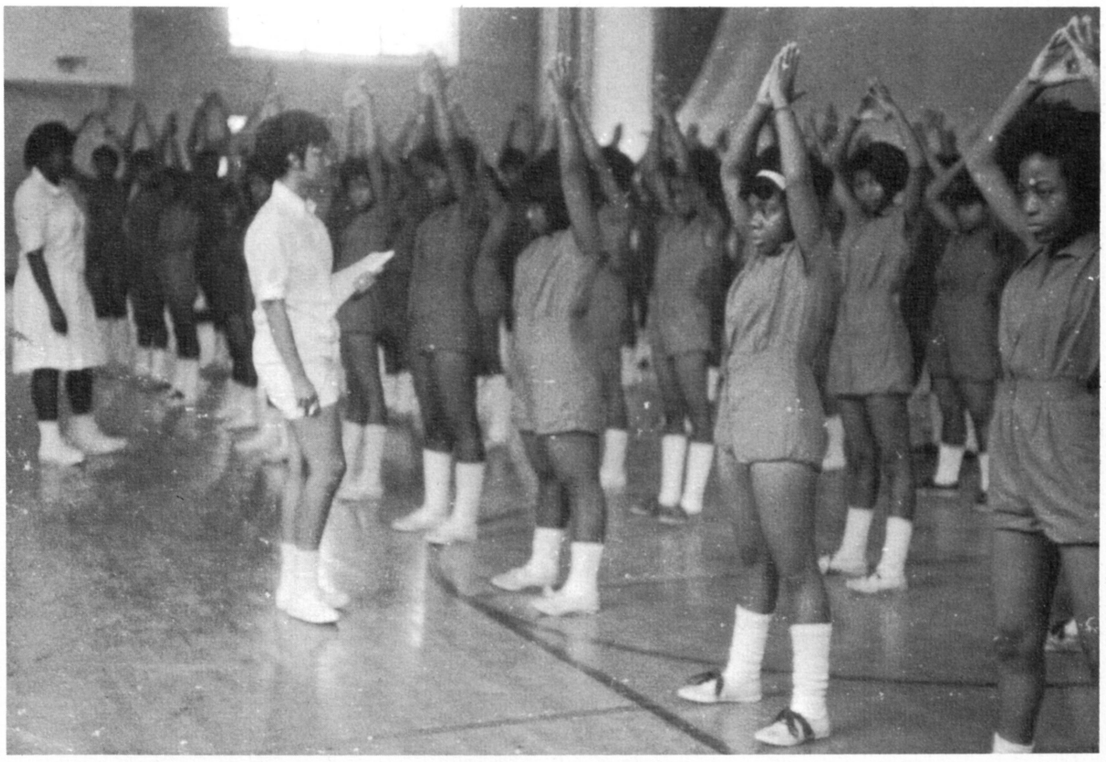
Creativity is an important factor in our marching band. The students here, exhibit their talents as they play and swing to the rhythm of "Watermelon Man".



The Washington High students realized that physical fitness plays an important part in the life of one who is striving toward academic achievement. This is exemplified by their ceaseless endeavor to become physically fit.

Influenced by Varied Experiences . . .

The class of 1966 receives inspiration from last year's graduating class.

We were indeed privileged and honored to have as a guest in our school Congressman Charles L. Weltner.

. . . From the Mass Emerges . . .

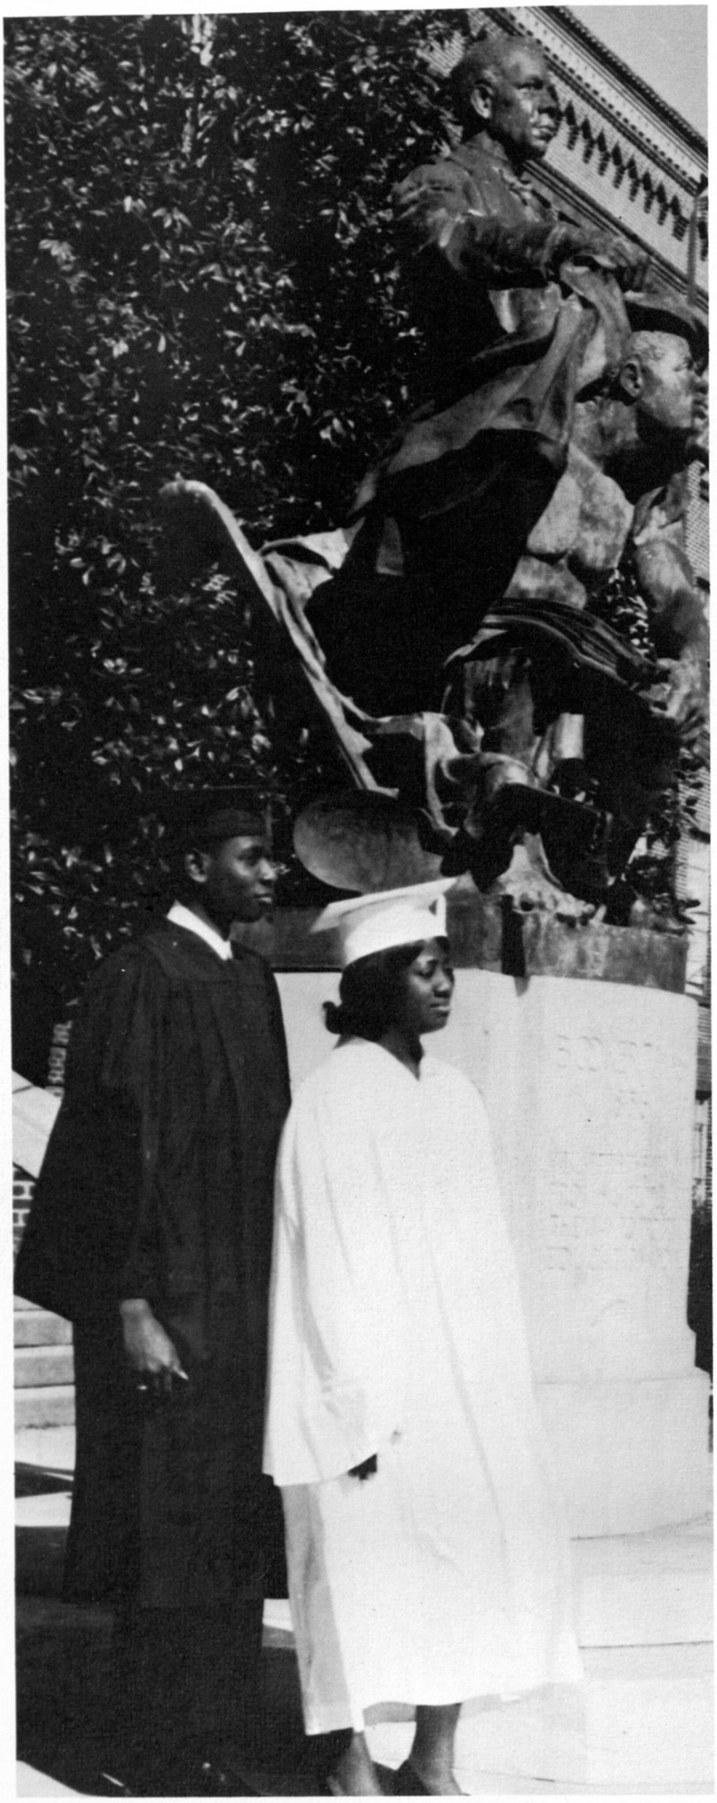
Here our students sit, waiting with much anxiety and anticipation upon the arrival of their most royal and gracious queen and her regal court.

Our school is one that believes in developing its students' talents. The girls' chorus exemplifies a composite of some of the best talent ever.



Seniors Ronald Adams and Patricia Wyatt await the climax of their high school years, graduation.

. . . An Individual

THE WASHINGTON STUDENT

THROUGH INSTRUCTION . . . The student is taught how to think, not what to think. The finest of teaching aids and an excellent faculty insure each student thorough training in all academic areas.

THROUGH ASSOCIATION . . . Whether it be in the halls, at lunch, or on a date, a student learns to understand people and to build friendships.

THROUGH ACTIVITIES . . . The student's interest is stimulated and his creativity given a chance to develop. The activities at Washington are constantly changing to meet the demands of new interests and ambitions.

INFLUENCED BY THESE VARIED EXPERIENCES, FROM THE MASS EMERGES . . .

The total effect of a high school education is difficult to define. But this much is a certainty: As a result of these varied experiences, a person is better equipped to face the challenge of the future as . . .

. . . AN INDIVIDUAL.

The Seniors Know the Value of Good Leadership!

Representing the best in qualities of leadership, scholarship, and character are: President, Lynn Whatley; Vice President, LaMarian Hayes (Studying at Northfield); Secretary, Omega Tucker; Asst. Secretary, Dallas Anderson; Treasurer, Michael Willingham; Business Manager, Dwight Jackson (Now at Morehouse College) Reporter, Rosa King; and Chaplain, William Cleveland.

Class Poem

Farewell

To thee, our beloved Washington High,
The time has come to say goodbye.
You have inspired us during our high school days,
Now we must go our separate ways.

With some smiles and some tears,
We recall memories of past school years.
There were good times and bad times along the way--
Each prepared us for this departure day.

Dear Washington, in our hearts you'll always remain,
Though years will pass, as we seek our fame.
For the rooms that we love and the teachers true--
These we will cherish as we start anew.

In the years to come, wherever we may roam,
Washington High, you will always be our home.
For you are the school that has inspired us so well--
To you, dear Washington, we bid a sorrowful farewell.

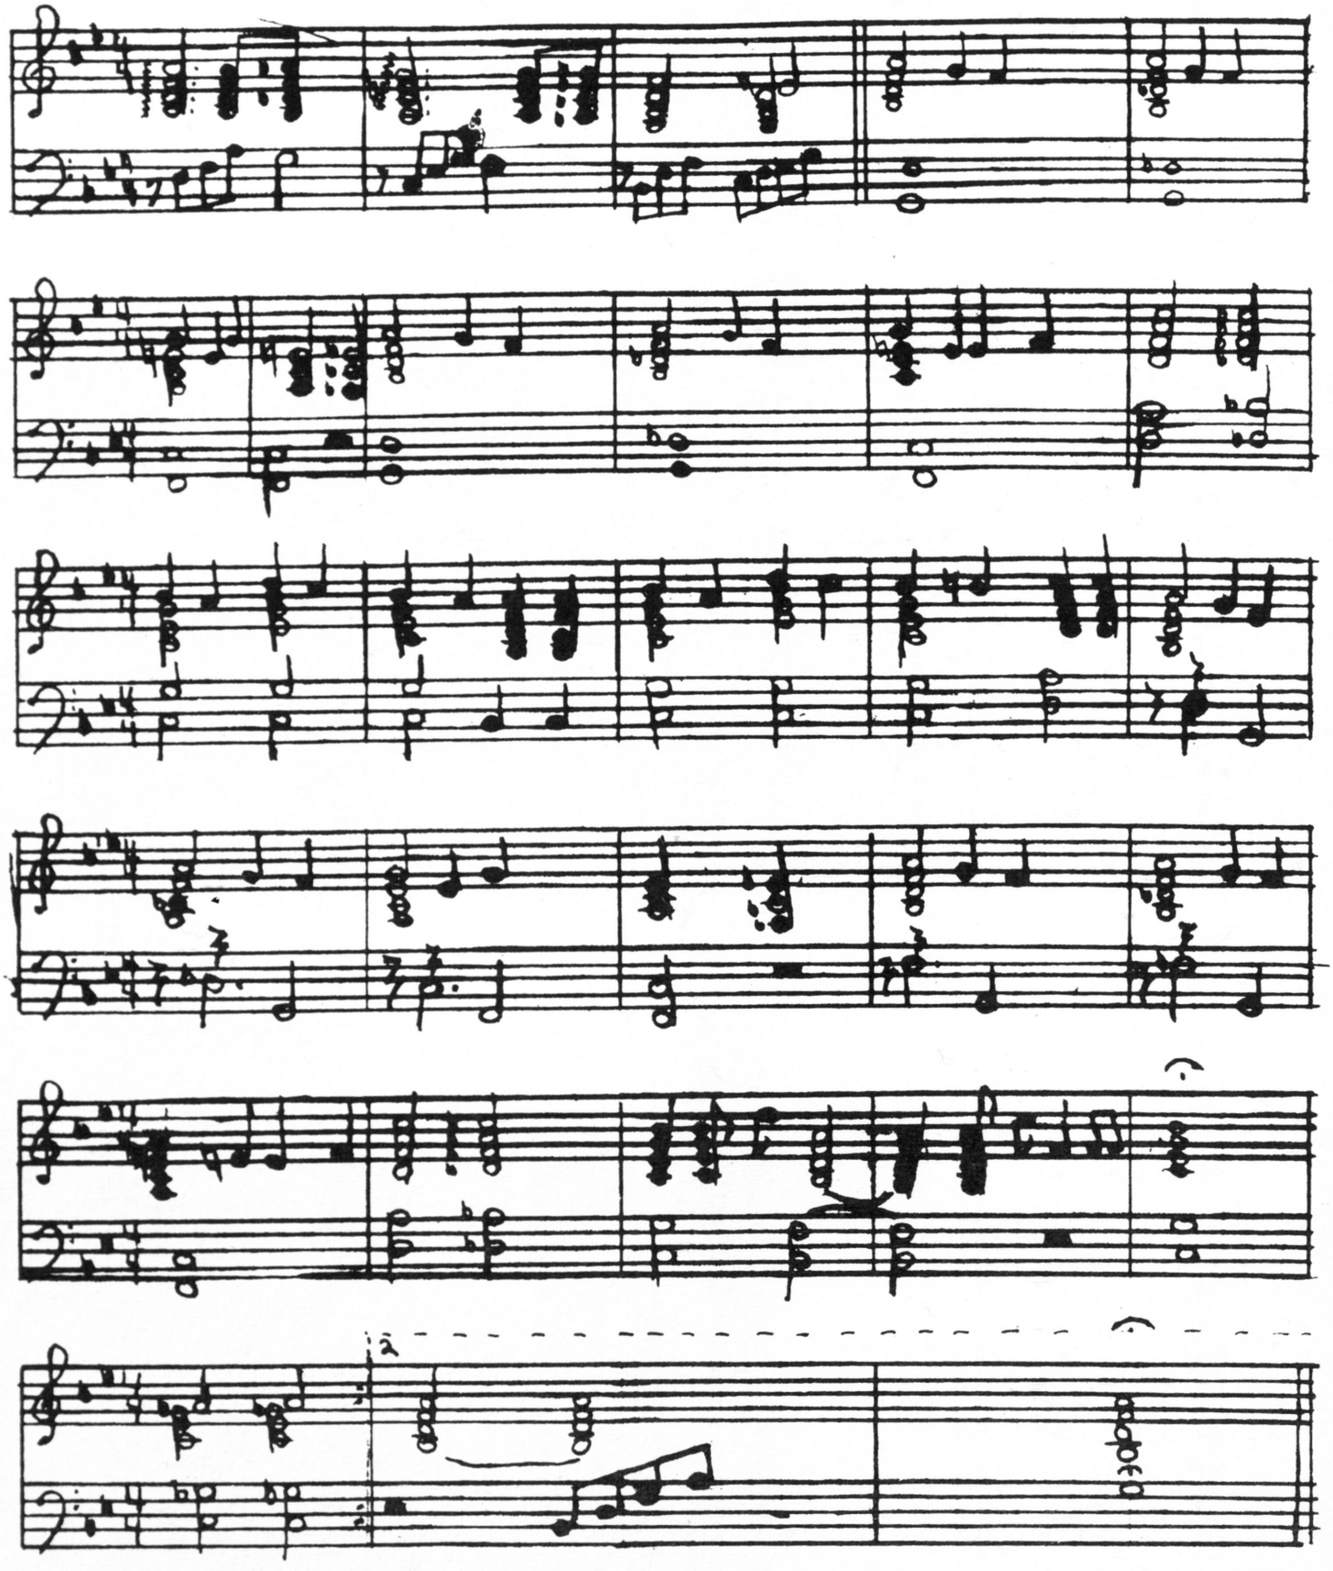
CLASS SONG '66



By William Cleveland II

WASHINGTON, GOODBYE!

Washington, Washington, tears fill our eyes,
That after all these years of joy, we must tell you good-bye.
Our work with you, dear school, is through,
And now we all must start anew.

You taught us right from wrong, dear school,
And gave us valor too--
For your kindness and sincerity, we'll always remember you.
Our tears will pass, but our memories will last,
And we all leave grateful to you.

Washington, Washington, school of our hearts,
Though glad we are to reach our goal--how sad that we must part.
But in a world that's cold and gray,
Your torch will help light our way.

Washington, Washington, you we will miss--
And seeing your columns standing there in the morning mist,
We leave with a prayer for the future
And thanks for the past.

Washington, good-bye!

Class Prophecy

by

Cynthia Lanell Favors

We the class of 1966 have progressed from the Modern Age to the Go-Go Age--an age in which many changes have taken place. As I glance through my Go-Go glasses, there rises a big question, namely, "What will happen to my classmates?" The clouds appear. Then--the clouds vanish and I'm in New York City, walking down Fifth Avenue where Etherlrene Culbreath, Wilhelmina Westbrook and Patricia Davis have opened an exclusive hat shop. Among the dozens of customers whom I see are Veronica Walker, Yvonne Harmon, Jacquelyn Wyatt, and Shirley Hood who are buying the latest Paris styles. Anna Laura McGee, Carolyn Griffin, Roselyn Frazier, Sherrell Ponder, Patricia Borders, and Jeannette Butts are Parisian models and are showing some of their latest styles. Walking through Harlem, I discover that Andrew Harris, Larry Smith and Ronald Pierce are rival businessmen. I run across Carolyn Goss pushing a baby carriage.

The governor of New York is Jesse Munford and his wife is the First Lady of the state, the former Jo Ann Winfrey. I now seem to be nearing Madison Square Garden where I hear loud cheering. I enter and see Bobby Ellison and Gerald Arnold fighting for the heavy weight championship of the world. Here at Times Square, I see Stanley Henson looking for his wife Toni Smith, and also eyeing the other girls. The editor of the NEW YORK TIMES is Shirley Duhart. Photographers are Hackney Crowder, Walter Carter, Melvin Pepper, and Larry Scott. Jimmy Scott, Timothy Jones, Kenneth Walker, and Chester Turner operate a rival newspaper syndicate called THE MEN'S TATTLER. Mattie Tillman, Rose Jordan, Mattie Bolton, Barbara Whited and Gale Tomlinson,are registered nurses at St. Dean Hospital, while the head doctors are Elaine Turner, Betty Cox, Joyce Dorsey, Charles Hodges, Karen Smith, and Willie Mae Shaw.

Well what do you know? I'm in Washington, D. C. and everything is jumping. Jon Harris is still sporting his sharp clothes and tennis shoes and is President of the United States. His personal advisors are Marian Alexis Scott and Doris Creecy. Congresswoman Willma Harrington is lecturing to Congress and predicting that with in the next twelve years, there will be a woman president in the White House. Nodding agreement are congresswomen Rosa King, Rose Mary Kelly, Linda Jackson, Brenda Rogers, Pollet O'Kelly, Carolyn Wright, and Gwendolyn Flarr.

Glenda Aaron is now appearing at the Paladiym in concert, being assisted by Zelma Elder, Carolyn Jones, Carol Jones, and Marcel Benton. Frances Brown and Ronald Adams have opened a law office. Their first clients are Brenda Blake, Patricia Middlebrools, and Omega Tucker who are sueing their husbands Donald Johnson, Daniel Houseworth, and Earl Glenn, respectively, for divorces. Margie Foxworth, Patricia Roberts, Beverly James, Shirley Harrington and Rose Montgomery are now busy housewives and mothers, each having ten children apiece.

All of a sudden I seem to be whirling westward--across the Mississippi--over the Rocky Mountains. As I pass over California, I see Ruby Mitchell and Mary Jo Brown, who are loved by the people as talented comediennes. One night I attended a basketball game in which the number one team is playing for the championship--"The Sleepy Trotters"--featuring Leon Anthony, Larry Tukes, Gene Sims, Paul Hampton, Leland Scott and Howard Hester. And they tell me that Eddie King, Thomas Johnson, Gail Johnson, Beverly Evans and Lucinda Jackson lead the Americans in gold medal awards in the 1978 Olympics, and that Winston Moulder, Robert Conley, Frank Mabry, Jerome Willingham, and Stanley Hinton are with the Washington Red Skins. What's this? Do my eyes deceive me? No, it's true Earnest Williams, Penerose Jackson, Samuel Florense, Thomas Burt, Lewis Linsey, and Scott Edwards have organized a swinging band called the "Breath Takers". Their Takerlettes are Pactricia Wyatt, Ruby Dorsey, Cecelia Alexander, Willie Mae Bowden, Rosa Davis, and Shirley Clark.

Say--this place looks familiar. Atlanta Ga.! The manager of Anthony's is now Gary Horton. Some of his employees are Larry Gresham, Kenneth Holloway, Elonzie Colbert, Earnest Durden, and Zletter Smith.

The name of Paschal Brothers has been changed. It is now "Tree Top", owned and managed by John Johnson, Eddie Dix, and James Stith. Their waitresses are Anna Fulton, Melissa Mapp, Evetter Jackson, Janice Vaughn, and Ann Jones. Nightly entertainers are Cheryle Milner, Diane Fleming, Audrey Reynolds, Diedra Mitchell, Vera Bonner, and Marcia Paynes. Sitting at a table drinking a chocolate malt sophisticatedly are Stella Jackson, Beverly Bell, Mattie Dixon, Jean Allen, Betty Perry and Judith Bennett.

Jimmy Webb and Samuel Gaston are bending with age but can still manage a wolf whistle through their false teeth as the pretty girls pass. Nedra Petty, Sherry Willingham and Sandra Andrews are managers of the Royal Arts Studio where Alva Allen, Marcus Robinson and James Roberts are employed. Grace Jordan is having a picture made by Sandra and intends to give it to Bruce Bolton.

Kathryn Watson is Dean of Women at Georgia State while Dallas Anderson is Dean of Women at Clark College. (Hear tell that Theresa Chandler is, believe it or not, the Dean of Bennett College. The president of Clark College is Harry Pierce. Alexis Scott is Dean of Women at Spelman College. The president of this history making institution is Franklin Huff. Samuel Dickson is Dean of Men at Morehouse College. The principal of Washington High School is Haywood Solomon and the assistant principal is Elaine Turner. The chairman of the English Department is Alexis Jessie. The Chairman of the Home Economics Department is Bettye Wilkinson. Scheryl Houston is Chairman of the music department, and William Cleveland is director of the band. The Chairman of the Mathematics Departments at Washington High is Laurence Johnson. The coach of the football team is Ervin Chapman. The chairman of the Art Department is Grady Neally. Clerical workers in the office are Linda Heard and Brenda Smith.

The chefs in the newly modernized cafeteria are Glria Manson and Alice Palmer. Mae Bell Simmons and Gairy Heath have become great businesswomen. Elva Daniel and Dorothy Evans are wig stylists in an outstanding establishment. Rosetta Wright and Tondelayo Conley are collaborators in a cleaning and pressing club on Hunter Street. Judy Lee and Hazel McDowell are famous lady wrestlers appearing monthly at the City Auditorium. Aldrich Perkins is a trolley conductor and lets all the women ride for free. Cecilia Alexander is an airline hostess for American Airlines.

As my vision begins to clear, I see Lynn Whatley, President of Georgia Tech, lecturing to a group of young men on "how to get a girl friend and keep her."

Suddenly the clouds disappear and the mist is gone. I remove my Go-Go glasses thoughtfully, and begin to wonder--

Will the years to come bring about changes, or will time stand still? That's the question I leave for you, dear classmates, to decide.

Washington! O Washington!

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide,
For learning, fame, renown and gain
Our gratitude abides.
As long as God's eternal love
Shall hold their portals wide
For God and man in every land
We'll serve for Washington.

Chorus

Washington! Oh Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide
For God and man in every land
We'll live for Washington.

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall never die
Our hearts are thine, thy fame shallshine
O'er earth and sea and sky.
Thy halls shall echo memories,
Thy precepts reign sublime,
Where'er we roam, where'er our home
We'll live for Washington.

Dear Alma Mater, keep our hearts
In dear old Washington
A band of loving schoolmates we
Will live for Washington.
"Vincit qui se vincit"
The lesson thou hast taught
We trust the future may perfect
The work thy hands have wrought.

Washington! O Washington!
March on to victory
For honor bright 'gainst wrong for right
Spread learning everywhere.
"Truth, purity," thy blue and white
With banner held unfurled
Great deeds we'll dare: Do each his share
We'll die for Washington.
