Center Grove Named "Top Workplace" for Second Year

GREENWOOD, IN (April 22, 2014) — Center Grove Community School Corporation (CGCSC) is pleased to announce its selection as a 2014 Top Workplace in Central Indiana. Center Grove also received the honor in 2013.

The selection is based upon a survey of employees by the Indianapolis Star, in conjunction with Workplace Dynamics. The survey measured qualities such as company leadership, communication, career advancement opportunities, working environment, managerial skills, pay and benefits.

"Receiving this honor for a second year is tremendous," said Rich Arkanoff, Superintendent of CGCSC. "Employee satisfaction is a major focus of our Strategic Planning Staffing Committee. We work hard to support, challenge, and reward our employees. This award reinforces the impact that commitment is having on our employees."

In addition to extensive professional development opportunities, Center Grove provides a Wellness Clinic for employees who are on the corporation's health insurance plan. The clinic, staffed by IU Health, provides everything from flu shots to same-day sick care. Based in part on feedback from the Strategic Planning Staffing Committee, the corporation has recently announced plans to create an employee daycare center. It is scheduled to open in the fall of 2015.

Center Grove was recognized in the large company category and is among 80 businesses in Central Indiana to receive the honor. The full list of Top Workplaces is published at www.topworkplaces.com.
