Our Programs

Federal Way Public Schools offers high-quality and affordable preschool programs for children ages three and four. There are both tuition-based programs and free programs for income-eligible children that provide young children the chance to grow socially, emotionally, and developmentally in a nurturing environment.

ECEAP

Free preschool is available for income-eligible families, Early Childhood Education and Assistance Program (ECEAP) preschool provides part-day and full-day preschool education and support for children and families.

Developmental Preschool

Developmental Preschool is a blended preschool model serving kiddos with IEPs and typically developing peer-model students. There is a monthly tuition, but this fee may be waived for families that qualify for free and reduced lunch.
