Northport Intermediate School

SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT

The Northport Intermediate School and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2024-2025.

School Responsibilities

The Northport Intermediate School will:

1. Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

   We will adhere to our Northport Intermediate School Instructional Expectations Guide, outlining how we will plan and what resources we will use for engaging students in high levels of learning.

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least annually in elementary schools) during which this compact will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held:

   At least once during the 2024-2025 school year either by phone or in person. 3 documented attempts will be made to have this conference with each parent

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows:

   We will send home progress reports and report cards in accordance with the TCSS 2024-2025 Academic calendar. For students receiving intensive interventions & supports, reports will be sent from the school Problem Solving Team (PST) every 4-6 weeks.

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

   Teachers and staff will be available for consult with parents via SchoolStatus and/or a planned, in-person meeting at the school. Parents may also contact teachers via email.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

   Parents may arrange with teachers and school administration to visit, volunteer, and observe during the school day, given TCSS guest/visitor expectations are met.

6. Ensure regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, to the extent practicable, in a language that family members can understand.

   Northport Intermediate School will ensure meaningful communication through the use of SchoolStatus calls and messages, district email, and monthly newsletters from the administration.

Parent Responsibilities

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

[Describe the ways in which parents will support their children's learning, such as:

- Monitoring attendance.
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Volunteering in my child's classroom.
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district.
- Serving, to the extent possible, on advisory groups, such as Title I advisory committees and parent and family engagement committees.

Student Responsibilities (revise as appropriate to grade level)

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards. Specifically, we will:

[Describe the ways in which students will support their academic achievement, such as:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I need to.
- Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.
- Give to my parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day.]
