Theme: Building Strong Attendance Habits

Good morning, students!
This week's attendance focus is:
Building Strong Attendance Habits
Successful students build successful routines! Arriving at school on time and ready to learn helps you stay on track, feel confident, and participate in everything your day has to offer.
Did you know that the first few weeks of school are important for creating attendance habits that can last all year?

Challenge yourself to:

- Get to bed on time
- Prepare for school the night before
- Arrive on time every day
- Aim for 95% attendance or higher

Small habits lead to big success. Let's continue showing up, learning, and growing together!

On Saturday, October 10, volunteers will come together at Cauley Creek Park in Johns Creek to plant nearly 100,000 daffodils along the park's 5K trail in support of those impacted by cancer! The goal is to create a living symbol of hope, renewal, and resilience that returns every spring, while also attempting to break a world record.

It is a great opportunity for the community to get together and do some meaningful service work!
