Title I School-Parent and Family Engagement Plan

Date Reviewed: February 25, 2025

The Title I Parent and Family Engagement section of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Section 1116(b) requires each Title I school to develop a written parent and family engagement policy that describes the means for carrying out the requirements of Section 1116. The school must ensure that information related to school and parent programs, meetings and other activities are sent to the parents of Title I children in a format and in a language the parents can understand.

The policy must be:

- developed jointly with and agreed upon by parents and family members of Title I children;
- written in an understandable format and provided in a language parents can understand;
- distributed to all parents and family members of Title I children;
- made available to the local community; and
- updated annually to meet the changing needs of parents, family members and the school.

The policy describes how parents and family members will be involved in the planning, review and improvement of the school's Parent and Family Engagement Policy (ESSA, Section 1116(b)(1)).

- How will the school involve parents and family members in the development of the parent and family engagement policy?
    - Metzgar Elementary School will convene an annual meeting in the spring, to which all parents and family members of participating children shall be invited to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation as a Title I school and to explain the requirements of Title I and the rights of parents and family members to be involved.
    - At this meeting, the Parent and Family Engagement policy will review and edit jointly by all stakeholders.
    - The policy will be shared with families at Meet the Teacher Night and will be available to view on the district website.

The policy states that the school will convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time;

- which all parents and family members of participating children shall be invited, and encouraged to attend;
