GEAR UP Week continues!
Your future doesn't begin after graduation—it starts with the choices you make today. Stay focused, ask questions, get help when you need it, and take advantage of opportunities that can help you reach your college and career goals.

KDE's Early Graduation Program:
If you are a high-achieving student in grades 9, 10, or 11 and you are interested in the state's Early Graduation Program, stop by the counselors' office. Your paperwork must be signed and returned to the counselors' office by this Friday, September 25.

September Club Day:
This Friday, September 25, 2026
You can find a list of clubs available to join on your grade level google classroom. This includes what period they meet, where they meet, and if there any dues. After this Friday, rosters will be made for clubs and you will not be able to join later in the year, so make sure you attend the meetings on Friday.
 Mrs. McKayla Creech will be out of town on Club Day. Her GT clubs and leadership academy clubs will not meet.

Sign-Up for Archery:
Students in grades 4-12 who are interested in archery should plan to attend the informational meeting in the Wayne County High School CAFETERIA at 6PM on next Monday, September 28. If you are interested in participating in archery this year, it is very important that you come to this meeting. If you have questions or need additional information, contact Coach Forrest Shelton at (859) 880-1542.

Seniors:
Make sure you are in the yearbook google classroom for important information. Class code is outside of Ms. Frye's room.

Parent Teacher Conferences:

Tuesday, September 29 from 4-7 PM
 GEAR UP is hosting a "Senior Parent Talk" at 6 PM.
 A meal will be provided by GEAR UP as well
