Resources

Bayou Land Families Helping Families
Bayou Land Familes Helping Families provides information and referral, education and training, and peer-to-peer support to individuals with disabilities or special needs and their families.

Louisiana Educational Rights of Children with Disabilities
Louisiana Department of Education to help parents navigate the complex system that oversees special education in Louisiana's public schools. Each school year, local education agencies (LEAs) are required to provide parents a copy of the procedural safeguards. These safeguards are used to inform parents of the supports, services, and protections offered by your local system.

The Arc of St. Charles
The Arc of St. Charles offers many opportunities to individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities and special needs to attain their full potential.

Exceptional Lives
Tools to help families and schools build great relationships.

South Central Louisiana Human Services Authority
South Central Louisiana Human Services Authority serves as the single point of entry for waiver and support services for families of children with developmental disabilities.

Questions? Concerns? Let us Help!

If you have concerns with your child's IEP or implementation of specialized supports and services, we want to support you!

1. Contact your child's Special Education Teacher to resolve concerns with IEP implementation or progress. Your child's teacher is the best resource!

2. If you feel your concerns or questions are not satisfied, contact your child's Principal. The Principal will be able to walk you through the implementation of the IEP or current events.

3. If you feel that your questions or concerns have not been fully addressed, please contact the Special Education Parent Liaison for assistance.

4. If your questions or concerns have not been resolved, please contact the Coordinator of IDEA or the Director of Special Education for further assistance.

Your rights as a parent of a student with an exceptionality are valued and appreciated! We want to work with you to ensure your child's educational success!
