SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Seven, bequeath and bestow our outstanding abilities and characteristics to those we deem best suited to make proper and fit use of them.

Vernon Almeter leaves his nickmane "Icy Fingers" to George Derx.

To Geneva and Genivieve, Tom Carpenter bequeaths his quiet and reserve manners.

Tony Dodge wills his great love of women to John Stone.

Paul Harrington wills his bashfulness to Catherine Mull.

Sandra Hoffman bestows her mathematic abilities (?) to Mike Amberge.

Alan Hooker wills his dentures to Arlene Hoffman.

Nancy Jones leaves her ability of playing the piano to Bill Bailor.

Marianne Kelley wills her sales ability to Sandra Dewey.

Katheleen Link bequeaths her sense of humor to Ray Emery.

Sandra McKnight leaves her red hair to Jim Link.

Nancy Ross leaves her politeness to Jim Miller.

Mary Royce bequeaths her speed and sense of direction to Richie Spangler.

Ann Patterson wills her singing ability to Polly Radley.

Carol Mehlenbacher's power of concentration is bestowed to Bill Schultz.

We will our class flower "the Tea Rose" to Miss Cossaboon.

We will our class motto "Let's walk hand in hand instead of one before another" to Mrs. Weir and Mr. Dewey.

We will and bequeath to Mr. Dewey the hot showers and to Mrs. Betters better Social Studies classes.

We will our class colors, blue and white, to Mr. Farnsworth to paint his office.

We declare this to be our last will and testament signed by the witnesses thereof:

Evelyn Brooks
Jim Miller
