Homework activities for December

1st	While in the car or at dinnertime talk about opposites. (Night/day, off/on, up/down, hot/cold, etc.)
2nd	Read the Mr. O take home card/story. Talk about opposites: day/night, up/down, in/out, tall/short, big/small, etc.
3rd	Recite nursery rhyme Little Jack Horner. Ask your child where he was sitting, what was he eating, and what he pulled out of the pie.
6th	Get your child's favorite toy and put it in these places: over you, in the back of you, in front of you, next to you…have your child describe where it is.
7th	Clean your room for 10 minutes. You can have mom set the timer. Go as quickly as you can!
8th	Practice identifying the letters: Aa, Bb, Kk, Dd, Ff, Oo
9th	Give your child a cracker. Ask him/her to tell you what it smells, tastes, looks, and feels like. Ask him/her to bite into it & tell you what they hear.
10th	Get whipped cream and a baking sheet. Put the cream on the tray. Have your child practice writing their name in the cream with their finger.
13th	Look through magazines/newspapers with your child. Point to letters and numbers; have them tell you which it is (a letter or number).
14th	Go to each room in your house. Count all the windows. Go back again and count all the doors (both inside and outside).
15th	Tell 5 things that you can do in the winter that you CAN NOT do in the summer. Now tell 5 things you can do in both seasons.
16th	Recite the nursery rhyme Old Mother Hubbard.
17th	Kiss Your Brain!! Tell all the new things you have learned at school this year. What 3 things were your favorites?
20th-31st	Create a song or rhyme with your child for them to learn to say their birthday.
	Return to school on January 3rd
Jan. 1st	Hang a calendar in your child's room. Mark off each day at bedtime. Label important events.
