THE ART OF TRANSFORMATIONAL COACHING

Back by popular demand!

The WVREN is happy to sponsor mentors, coaches, administrators, and other district leaders from the WVREN region to learn alongside other leaders in Bright Morning's Art of Transformational Coaching.

From the Bright Morning website:

Most coaching conversations stay at the surface—focusing on behaviors without addressing the beliefs, emotions, and systemic barriers underneath. That's why so many changes don't stick.

Grounded in Elena Aguilar's, Arise: The Art of Transformational Coaching, this dynamic workshop equips you with the essential skills, mindsets, and tools you need to lead powerful conversations that create real, sustained change.

The Transformational Coaching Approach:

- Go beneath surface-level behaviors to address mindsets and ways of being
- Engage emotions skillfully so people feel safe enough to learn and stretch
- Center equity in everyday conversations
- Build the trust, resilience, and momentum needed to make lasting change possible

There are 4 different options for workshop dates. Please double check you are on the correct registration page for your availability.
