It's November, and time for a new Beanstack challenge. We know it's a shorter month at school. So this month, the challenge is to read just 180 minutes. But, we also challenge you to finish a book and write a review! Reviews are a way to tell other Bobcats what you liked (or didn't like) about the book you read. Read and log 180 minutes. Finish a book. Write a review. That's it! As always, completing a challenge earns you 5-star points. And one lucky Bobcat will win a special grand prize! Good luck and happy reading!
