What your Kindergartener is Learning:

Language Arts

Domain: This week we will start our unit on Native Americans. This is a harder unit with some challenging vocabulary, please review items coming home this will help with the unit test. We will read about the Lakota Sioux's this week.

Skills: We will start Unit 7. In this unit we will introduce the digraph sounds. We will start with the "ch" and the "sh" sound.

Our new classroom reader is called "Seth."

Math

We will start Lesson 12 this week. This week we will go over greater than and less than with 10.

Kindergarten Reminders:

With the weather getting a little cooler, please remember that students may wear a solid red, blue, or white jacket in the classroom. Outside during recess they can wear any type of fall/winter coat. Please make sure you put your child's name in their jackets!

We hope you have a wonderful fall break and enjoy some special time with family and friends.

We are so thankful for all of you and your wonderful students.

We sent home a Thanksgiving Home Challenge for the break. This is not for a grade and is supposed to be fun. It's a great way to incorporate skills with family and friends! You can send it back for a prize after the break!

November has come and gone! These 20 words should be mastered this month. The next list is supposed to be mastered by the end of January.

Please make flash cards at home to help practice these words. They cannot be sounded out, so they just need to be memorized.

her, will, his, up, my, are, has, have, by, for, an, was, did, see, get, look, like, as, if, him

Book Fair Information:

Our School Book Fair is coming. We will have a wish list day coming up where students will make a wish list of books to bring home. Then you as a family can decide which books and send money and the wish list back with your student on their scheduled shopping day or join us for the Ice Cream Social. More information will be coming!
