Supporting Our Students 💙
The Care Closet Is OPEN!

At Sauk Centre Secondary Schools, we want every student to feel supported, cared for, and ready to succeed — in school and at home.

The Care Closet is here to provide a little extra help when you need it. Thanks to the support of our amazing community, we can offer things like:

- 🍎 Weekend meals and snacks
- 🧴 Basic personal and everyday necessities
- 💙 Confidential support and assistance
- 🤝 Connections to other helpful resources

Need a little extra support? That’s what we’re here for!

Students are always welcome to stop by the Counseling Office. You don’t have to figure things out on your own. Our staff is here to listen, help, and connect you with the resources you need.

There’s no judgment and no need to be embarrassed — asking for help is a strength.

We’re here for you! 💙

We Are Here to Listen

Students may notice "I'm Here to Listen" stickers and posters around the 5–12 building.

Our hope is to start conversations, reduce the stigma surrounding mental health, and help students identify staff members who are willing to listen, support, and connect them with resources.

You are not alone. We are here to listen.
