Good afternoon
I'm not sure why you're harassing me with this instead of just sending me the information I requested over a month and a half ago.

My statement is factually correct and 100% accurate because I asked Mr Grissom for this information in September and he refused to provide it to me and it's directly from his email account that I'm looking for information so yes it is a violation of the statute and it is past the deadline.

Please respond with the information I requested.
