COMMUNITY SERVICE

Each upper school student is required to participate in the DC Service Project. Students must complete their Service Project each year as a requirement to graduate. On average, a DC Service Project should take a student 15 hours to complete; although many students serve well beyond 15 hours.

Each upper school student is required to complete 1.0 credit of SAIL. Students select courses from three schools: School of the Arts, School of STEM, and School of Humanities and Entrepreneurship. Upper school students complete their SAIL courses during two full weeks each academic year. Students may opt to complete their required internship hours during one or both SAIL weeks.
