ALETHEIA CHRISTIAN ACADEMY NEWSLETTER

A WORD FROM OUR ADMINISTRATOR...

Thank you for choosing to partner with us in your child's education and spiritual development. I'm thrilled to report, for the third year in a row, our enrollment retention rate was in the upper 90th percentile. Many of our classes saw 100% re-enrollment. This is a testament to the incredible community and culture that we collectively enjoy at Aletheia Christian. We are incredibly grateful for your partnership!

We are fully engaged in the admissions season, attempting to fill any openings that may exist. Additionally, we are actively seeking to fill a few staff vacancies for the 25-26 school year. If you know of anyone interested, please have them contact our Assistant Administrator, Melanie Wiggins, for an application. Finally, we are still searching for a Varsity Volleyball coach. If you are interested, or know someone who might be, please have them contact our Athletic Director, Jeff McDonald.

Spring break is upon us and warmer weather and longer days are quickly approaching. I encourage you to take a deep breath and get ready for the fourth nine weeks. The last quarter of the year brings a plethora of events to Aletheia Christian. Please make sure that you are checking your email, text messages, and our social media to make sure that you do not miss any important updates or event information. Also, please make sure to always watch our Friday video.

BE BLESSED! BE DIFFERENT! GO, LIONS!

KINDERGARTEN MUSIC

The kindergarteners are learning the eight notes of the scale and practicing them on the xylophone. After completing that, they will be moving on to playing simple songs as they sing along and learn the names of the notes.

PENGUIN DAY

Students in Mrs. Davis' 2nd grade class wrapped up reading Mr. Popper's Penguins in the most fun way imaginable: a Penguin Day! They all dressed up as penguins, competed in a penguin relay, painted penguin rocks, and even enjoyed a chilly treat (Kona Ice).

ART AROUND THE WORLD

Mrs. English, our art teacher, has been working hard with students to create stunning pieces for the “Lions Spring Fine Arts Festival” in April. The students have started exploring art from all over the world, with projects ranging from Ghana's Kente cloth to indigenous art from Australia. Here, second graders are working on parade elephants from India. It’s an exciting global art journey they’re on!

FOSSIL FUN

Fifth grade science students had a creative project to complete last month called “Future Fossils.” Students were paired up and tasked with choosing an animal, creating its fossil, and then adding a robotic part to the fossil. They got very inventive!

SLIME TIME

First graders in Mrs. Beck’s class enjoyed a day getting their hands slimy. Parent Michelle Wardlaw and others helped the students make three kinds of slime. What a fun and messy way learn!

FIFTH GRADE LEARNS ABOUT PT

Fifth grade students had a special visitor, a Physical Therapist named Mr. Ross!
He taught the children about what PTs do and how they help the body move better and decrease pain. He demonstrated some exercises and equipment used in the field as well as showed the students what perfect posture looks like. He even performed a song for them to learn the the different body systems.

First place winners from each grade will compete in the County Competition on Thursday, March 13th at 6pm at the Langley Bell 4-H Center in Cantonment.

LEGACY SERVE DAY

Every quarter, our Upper School students participate in a serve day in their Legacy Groups. From completing much needed maintenance around the school to ministering to those outside of the walls of Aletheia, our students are helping to meet the needs of the community.

In February, Mrs. Thompson's and Mrs. Davis' Legacy Group made baskets full of items for Favor House, a non-profit organization that ministers to victims of domestic abuse.

Mrs. Skaggs' and Mrs. Seabrook's Legacy Group chose to make Valentine's cards and bags for a local assisted living facilty.

10TH GRADE CELL PROJECT

Students in Mr. Tripp's Biology class were assigned a cell analogy project in which they had to relate every function of cell organelles to the function of another complex system, such as a school, city, factory, or farm. Students also had to present their projects to the class. They did a great job!

AP LIT MOVIE NIGHT

Students in Mrs. Everett's AP Literature class finished up reading the classic "To Kill a Mockingbird." To celebrate, as well as compare and contrast, they watched the film at Mrs. Everett's house, complete with pizza and snacks.

What a fun way to reward these students!

GUEST SPEAKERS

Students in Mrs. Walsingham's eighth grade English class have been assigned a research project on the topic of Christian persecution.

Peter and Medena Williams visited the classes to share their experience working with Voice of Martyrs, an organization that works to spread the gospel as well as raise awareness of Christian persecution here in the US. They shared some powerful stories and also talked about creative ways in which Christians are being reached, including releasing balloons with the gospel written in different languages so when they land, people will be able to read them. This visit helped deepen students' understanding of the issues Christians face around the globe.

POETRY WINNERS

Mrs. Everett's Upper School Poetry Contest winners are:
Violet Martin-1st Place
Genava Pereira-2nd Place

Carter Bowman-Honorable Mention

Overthinker by Violet Martin

I think a lot.
Way too hard and way too much
My mind space is a deadly place
Where I self sabotage myself
Causing my heart to race

I think a lot.
Way too hard and way too much
The slightest off move someone makes
Can cause my very peace to dissipate
Changing my mood into melancholy aches

I think a lot.
Way too hard and way too much
Even my closest people can be evil
As my brain creates a lethal story
In my mind leaving me weak and feeble

I think a lot.
Way too hard and way too much
Here I stand with my tempestuous mind
Never calm, never empty, but always intertwined
With thoughts and with lies that will always arise

I think a lot.
Way too hard and way too much
"You're not good enough" is what I hear
Making me want to disappear
Oh, how I wish my mind could be clear

But it's not
Because I think a lot.
Way too fast and for way too long
In the end, I'm always the one that's wrong
I cannot help the reason I'm this way
But I know now instead I really should just pray
