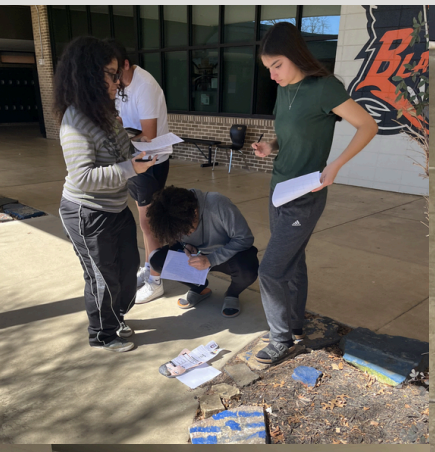
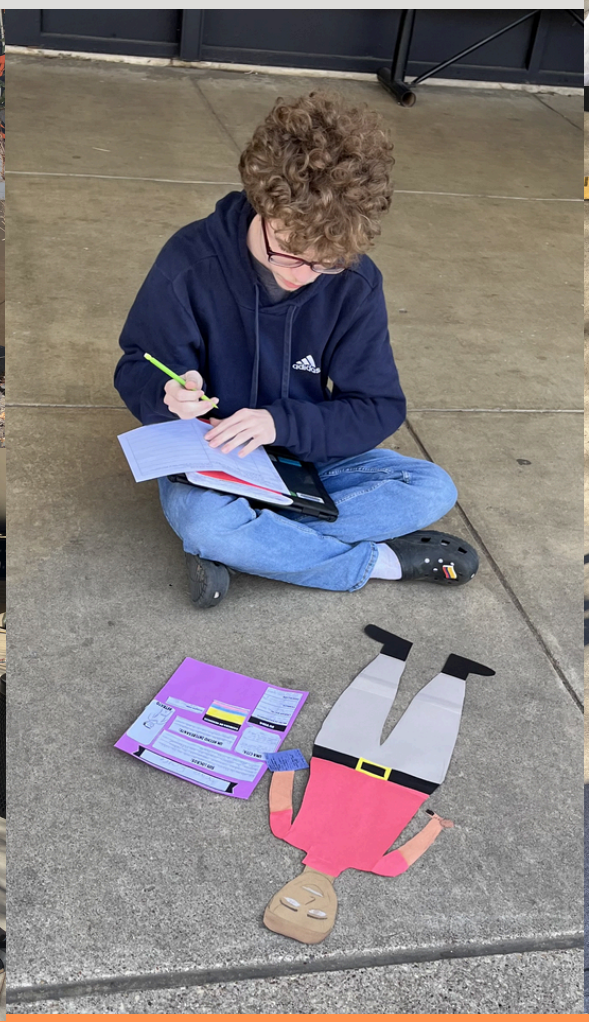
CELEBRATING BLACK HISTORY MONTH IN SPANISH

Students researched different famous Afro Latinos in Spanish class recently. They wrote about their person in Spanish and created a picture of them, then did a gallery walk to learn about the individuals their classmates chose!





FIND THE CONNECTIONS

Mr. Martell's advanced English classes compared JFK's Race to the Moon speech and Ronald Reagan's speech after the Challenger disaster using hexagonal thinking, focusing on effective and persuasive speaking.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

MARCH 2025

CEDRICK HALL, 9TH GRADE

Cedrick is a great singer with a calm and steady presence that helps keep the choir grounded. His hard work and dedication make him an invaluable member of the bass section, always contributing to the success of the group. Cedrick is a two-time All-Region Choir member due to his strong work ethic and beautiful voice.

JADYN ALDERSON 8TH GRADE

Jadyn comes to class every day ready to be creative and take on new experiences. He always contributes to a respectful classroom environment and brings positive energy with his smile! Way to go, Jadyn!

AIDEN SHRESTHA, 7TH GRADE

Aiden is super reliable and goes above and beyond. He will do anything asked of him and more. Aiden takes the lead in class each day with set and preparation.

CIANA MADRID, 9TH GRADE

Ciana is a talented and joyful presence in the choir; she brings a smile and her beautiful voice to every practice. Smart, hardworking, and dedicated, she is a great all-around Choir member who contributes in so many ways to our success.

ISABEL JAIMES, 8TH GRADE

Isabel has made significant contributions to the Theatre program this year by volunteering many hours making props and helping at rehearsals. She also jumped into learning a new skill and helped design and operate the lights for two productions this year!

JOLIE BUCK, 7TH GRADE

Jolie has been a fun artist to watch; her imagination allows her to create beautiful artwork that tells a clear story and captivates her audience. She always strives for quality craftsmanship that makes her artwork stand out.

HEB
HURST - EULESS - BEDFORD
Independent School District

To All HEB ISD Parents, Families, and Employees:

At a recent board meeting, the Board of Trustees approved our Official School Calendar for the 2025-2026 school year. We appreciate your input, and from the results of that input, our employees and our community let us know that Calendar Draft A was the choice of our stakeholders. You can access the 2025-2026 calendar on our calendar webpage: HEB ISD Calendars webpage (www.hebisd.edu/calendar)

Please Note: Next school year's calendar will start the school day five minutes earlier than the current school year. Beginning in August 2025, the elementary school day will start at 7:45 AM, junior high at 8:15 AM, and high school at 8:40 AM. This allows HEB ISD to fulfill common calendar requests we've received from HEB ISD families and staff, while still providing students with enough instructional minutes.
