Our commitment to students:

At Lamar Middle School, our focus is on educating students to become independent learners in a safe and nurturing environment. We challenge students to embrace a growth mindset by providing an appropriate rigor in our course work.

Our extra-curricular programs provide students with opportunities to be successful and learn the values of hard work, sportsmanship and teamwork. Our clubs and organizations provide students many opportunities to find a group they can belong to and find value in.

We are committed to providing our students opportunities to engage in real-world learning through field trips, hands-on experiences and through bringing community members into our school to provide rigorous and relevant learning experiences.

At Lamar Middle School, we are preparing leaders, shaping the future and impacting the world.
