Staff/student ratio is maintained at a low level for individual achievement by students, mastery of basic skills, and preparation for lifelong learning. School counselors, learning specialists, school nurses, speech and language pathologists and school psychologists are available in each Pittsford school.

Our schools include an array of instructional programs to meet the needs of all types of learners. Not only are our students engaged in high quality learning in the core areas of English Language Arts, mathematics, and science, we provide opportunities for experiences in encore areas such as the arts, music, physical education, career and technical education, technology and other specialized elective courses. In addition, students may participate in any number of extracurricular activities, such as musical productions, athletics, or a vast number of special interest clubs.

A key factor in the ability of Pittsford Schools to provide a quality education for students is the strong support and interest in the community for the best possible education for youth. School district residents support education by serving on school committees, volunteering time in the schools, and serving as resources to the schools as speakers, consultants and assistants. The excellence in district program and facilities is directly linked to a supportive community and a close school/community partnership.
