B. Operations- Real Property Tax Exemption

3. Real Property Tax Exemption pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law Section 458-a(11) 100% Disabled Veteran Tax Exemption

Be It Resolved, that the Board of Education hereby approves the following resolution:

Whereas, New York State Real Property Tax Law ("RPTL") § 458-a (11) authorizes a school district, after holding a public hearing, to adopt a resolution providing a full exemption from school district real property taxes for the primary residence of a qualifying veteran with a service-connected disability; and,

Whereas, on May 28, 2026, the Governor of the State of New York signed legislation amending New York Real Property Tax Law § 458-a(11) to restore the exemption as a local option for school districts and revise the eligibility requirements for qualifying veterans; and,

Whereas, the Board of Education has held a public hearing on the proposed resolution; and Now, Therefore, Be It Further Resolved, that the Board of Education of the Glen Cove City School District hereby authorizes the real property tax exemption provided pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law § 458-a(11) to the primary residence of a qualifying veteran who provides a letter from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs stating that the veteran is permanently and totally disabled as a result of military service; and,

Be It Further Resolved, that the exemption authorized pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law § 458-a(11) shall constitute a full exemption from school district real property taxation, as required by law; and

Be It Further Resolved, that this Resolution shall take effect in accordance with RPTL § 458-a(11), and shall apply to assessment rolls based on taxable status dates occurring on or after October 1, 2026.
