GET PAID TO COMPLETE YOUR MASTER OF EDUCATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

WE SEE YOU. We see how hard you've worked to get to where you are today. How you beat the odds to earn your degree. How you turned every can't into can. Every won't into will. We see the fire in you to blaze a path for the littlest ones who will follow in your footsteps. You want to kindle greatness within your students, and light a passion for learning that will never be extinguished. We see you, and we want to walk alongside you.

St. Anne's-Belfield School is seeking two talented, recent college graduates to join our Early Childhood Fellowship Program. These future educators believe that having great teachers at the youngest ages is essential to preparing students to become engaged citizens and visionary leaders. During this two-year program, Fellows receive support for earning their master of education degree at UVA School of Education and Human Development while gaining immersive experience as full-time teaching assistants at St. Anne's-Belfield School.

APPLY TODAY FOR:

- Full tuition and fees to the UVA School of Education and Human Development. You must apply separately and be accepted to UVA.
- Paid salary with benefits, along with housing support.
- Two years of immersive experience as a teaching assistant in the St. Anne's-Belfield Lower School and Saints Summer Camp, located just 2.5 miles from the UVA School of Education in Charlottesville, Va.
- Mentorship by experienced early childhood faculty at St. Anne's-Belfield.
