

The Graduate Portrait

The Graduate Portrait envisions the outcomes for students—the community’s aspirations for what graduates will know, be and be able to do to thrive in their lives and careers.

Future-Ready Adult

Students are prepared for their futures with essential life skills, are connected to a network of allies and have a direction and plan for life after the completion of high school.

Equity and Inclusion Leader

Students view diversities as assets to our inclusive community, understand the historical roots of racial and cultural biases that have led to institutional practices of oppression and know how to act in ways that promote equity and inclusion.

Trustworthy and Respectful Human Being

Students are responsible, trustworthy and empathetic, and practice respectful behavior toward others and our environment, both in person and digitally.

Resilient, Mindful and Thriving Self-Advocate

Students express self-confidence in how they positively honor their identities and how they advocate for their needs. They are mentally and physically resilient, know how to manage stress and work toward a balanced lifestyle.

Adaptable Lifelong Scholar

Students see learning as a lifelong endeavor that enables them to pursue their passions and interests. They know how to apply foundational academic knowledge integrated across various disciplines to develop new understandings.

Ethical Problem Solver

Students know how to apply diverse thinking, research and problem-solving methods to develop creative solutions that address the needs of the people for whom the solution is intended.

Interdependent Collaborator

Students value collaborating in diverse teams and know how to harness the collective genius of their team members to maximize productivity and reach outcomes.

Informed Global Steward and Communicator

Students demonstrate key global competencies needed to productively participate in our connected, worldwide community and act on issues of global and local significance.
