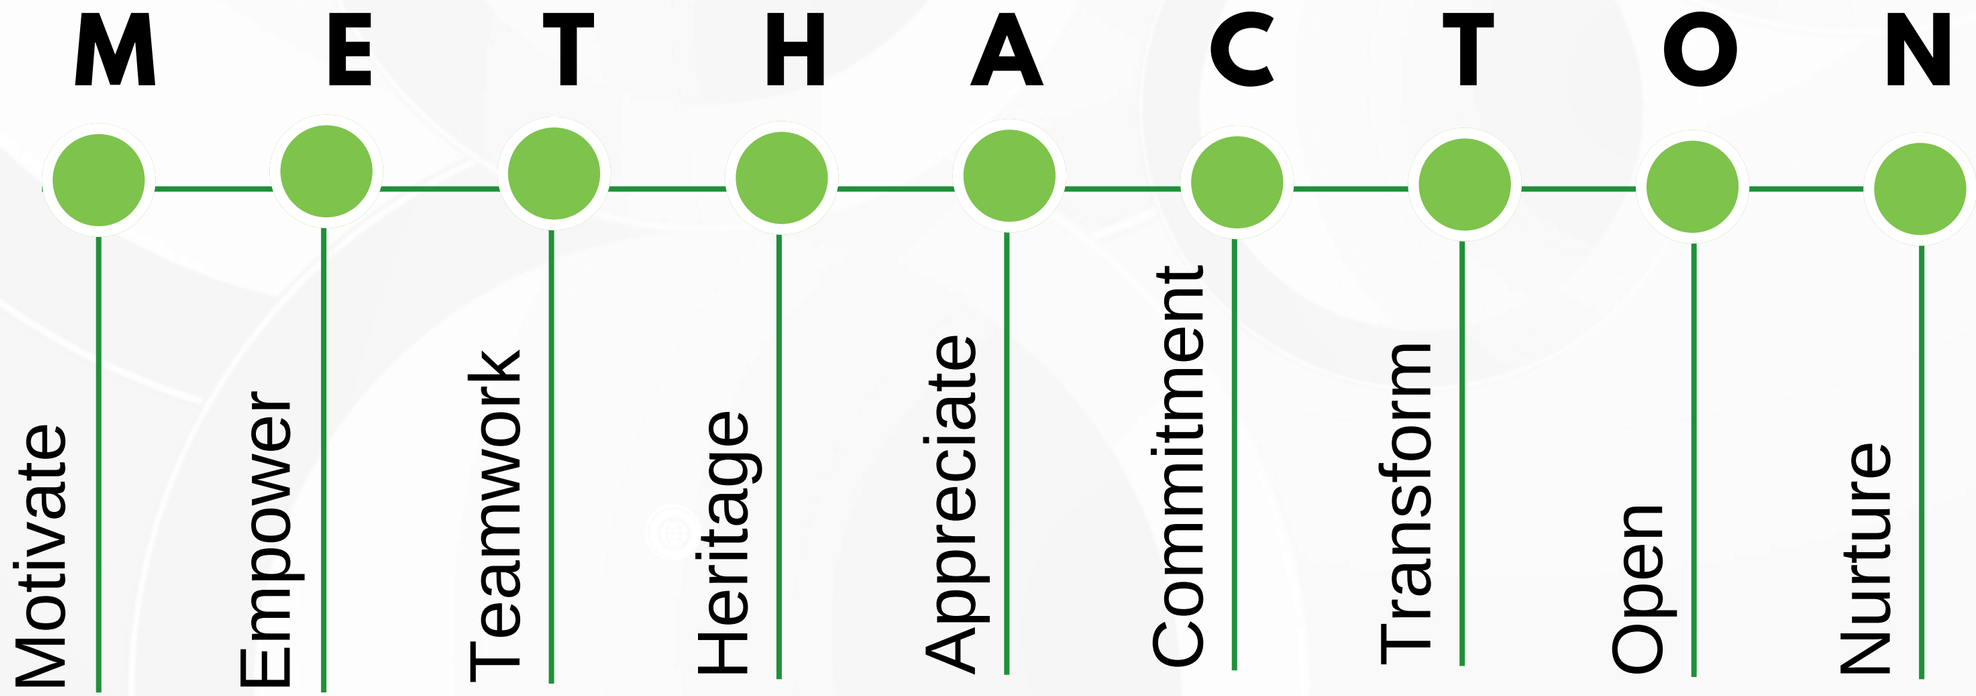
MARCH 2026 - AWARDEES

Our Core Values

The Spirit of Methacton Award is an opportunity to recognize our students, staff, and volunteers. Spirit of Methacton Award recipients are individuals who consistently model the qualities of the 9 core values of the Methacton School District. These individuals enrich our school community with their knowledge, commitment and support.



Elma Numerato

Health & Physical Education Teacher

Elma is an outstanding member of the Skyview team whose positivity and dedication are felt throughout the entire school community. As a physical education teacher, she works hard to engage students and create an environment where everyone feels encouraged to participate and grow. Elma is a true problem solver—whenever a challenge arises, she willingly steps in to help find solutions and supports the planning of special schedules and events that keep Skyview running smoothly. With her great sense of humor and uplifting spirit, Elma brings energy and optimism that radiate throughout her department and our school.

Kristen Brun

5th Grade Teacher

Kristen Brun is a dedicated fifth grade teacher at Skyview who consistently puts students at the center of everything she does. Her classroom is filled with engaging and creative lessons that keep students actively involved in their learning. Kristen has a special talent for building strong, positive relationships with both her students and their families, creating a supportive and welcoming classroom community. As a valued member of the PBIS Core Team, she thoughtfully approaches situations with a focus on student growth, making her a tremendous asset to the Skyview school community.

Professional Staff

Janet Bowers

Secretary

Janet is truly Skyview's secret superpower. If anyone has a question, Janet has the answer—and usually with a smile. Her enthusiastic work ethic, warm and kind demeanor, and wonderful sense of fun have helped set the welcoming tone of the Skyview main office for so many years. Janet has dedicated 24 years of service to the Methacton community, supporting students, families, and staff with care and commitment every single day. While we will certainly miss her when her time with us comes to a close, we are so happy that she will be beginning an exciting new chapter with her soon-to-be-born grandchild. We thank Janet for the lasting impact she has made on Skyview and wish her all the best in her well-deserved retirement.

Mary Ann Riesch

Instructional Assistant

Mary Ann is a valued member of our school community whose calm, positive, and nurturing presence makes a meaningful difference for the students she supports. She has worked intentionally to build strong relationships grounded in trust, helping students feel safe, supported, and ready to grow. Through these connections, Mary Ann has helped foster incredible progress for the students she works with. She is always willing to lend a helping hand, and her genuine kindness and positivity make her an incredible asset to our entire school community.

Support Staff

Brianna Walz

We would like to recognize Brianna as one of our dedicated parent volunteers who generously supports our school community. On band rehearsal mornings, Brianna arrives early to hold the door open for our students, allowing them to enter the building safely and efficiently before the school day begins. This simple act provides an added layer of safety and ensures our students can begin their morning rehearsals smoothly. We are incredibly grateful for the time and commitment this parent gives to support our students and our school.

Claire Evans

I would also like to recognize one of our wonderful parent volunteers, Claire, for her continued support of our students and school community. On band rehearsal mornings, Claire generously arrives early to hold the door open for students, helping them enter the building safely before the school day begins. Her willingness to give her time in the early morning hours not only supports our band students but also provides an added layer of safety and care. We are incredibly grateful for Claire's kindness, dedication, and the positive impact she has on our school community.

Volunteers

Elaina Krutz

6th Grade

Elaina consistently exemplifies the Spirit of Methacton through her actions each day. She brings a positive, enthusiastic attitude and shows a genuine commitment to collaboration, often encouraging her peers to engage meaningfully in our school community. Her thoughtful and creative approach contributes to our positive school community, and her presence has a positive impact on those around her. It is truly a pleasure to work alongside her.

Anna Larkin

5th Grade

Anna is confident and always demonstrates perseverance and resilience. She is kind and welcoming to all students. Additionally, Anna possesses a quiet strength. Anna also shows responsibility by participating in activities like soccer, volleyball, and dance and working hard in school.
