Sheyenne's Breker, West Fargo's Stegman shine at East Region meet

BY ANDREW HAUGLAND
The Forum

FARGO — West Fargo Sheyenne's Eben Breker had to wait nearly an hour before getting his first taste of action, but when he did Breker wasted no time.

Breker cleared four heights in four jumps with his fourth, an event-winning 6 feet, 5 inches, to take first place in the boys high jump at the East Region track and field meet on sunny, windy Friday afternoon at Sid Cichy Stadium at Shanley High School.

The junior credits and extensive practice regimen for his success.

"High consistency," said Breker, who has a best mark of 6-7. "I'm able to hit 6-6 a good amount. I could've gone higher."

After clearing 6-5, Breker had to put the high jump on pause to go check in for the 110-meter hurdles, where he finished fourth at 15.26 seconds. He decided to hold off on any additional height to focus on the boys triple jump, which was among the final field events of the day.

"He goes from 0 to 60 pretty quick and gets up," said Mustangs jumps coach Kurtis Karn. "It's amazing how quick and how high he gets."

Breker's teammate Douglass Napoleon set a personal-best, clearing 6-4 for second. The pair also finished top 2 in the triple jump with Breker winning at 43-5 and Napoleon at 42-5.

West Fargo Sheyenne's Eben Breker high jumps at the Class A East Region track meet on Friday at Sid Cichy Stadium in Fargo.

"It's cool to see him hit 6-4 with me," Breker said of Napoleon.

The pair will gear up for the North Dakota Class A state track meet next weekend at MDU Resources Community Bowl in Bismarck. The three-day event begins Thursday, May 21.

To the south of the high jump area, West Fargo's Lyla Stegman surged over the competition to win the girls javelin with a 135-3. Stegman encouraged the crowd to form a rhythmic clap moments before unloading her best mark of the day on her final attempt.

"That was my favorite part of state last year," Stegman said. "I just wanted to recreate that."

The senior holds the top distance in the girls javelin at 138-2. Packers javelin coach Riley Dolezal said Stegman's work ethic has been her greatest strength.

"She's constantly working (and) doing extra things all year long," Dolezal said.

Stegman won the state meet last season with a toss of 139-11. On Friday, Stegman finished third in the discus at 126-5.

"I'm still not satisfied," Stegman said. "I'm going to keep working for the state tournament and want that title again."

Fargo Davies' Alex Meece fired a 198-11 to win the boys discus and set a new meet record and top mark in the state. His teammate Luka Rout won the boys 800, 1600 and 3200 events. Wahpeton's Summer Nagel was clocked at 43.88 to set a new top time in the girls 300 hurdles.

Sheyenne's girls 400 relay team set a meet record at 48.66. The team is made up of Olivia Bratton, Christiana Sampson, Kenzie Wuo and Kia Ray.

West Fargo’s Michelle Gee adds to trophy case with 3-peats in 400m, 200m finals

Ryan Spitza
Updated Sat May 23, 2026 7:53 PM CDT

BISMARCK — Michelle Gee entered Saturday’s North Dakota Class A girls track and field finals chasing a third consecutive sweep of the sprint events.

But the West Fargo senior’s bid for a three-peat ended early in the day when Bismarck’s Jilian Quale edged her by 0.21 seconds in the 100-meter dash.

Quale was hardly an unfamiliar opponent. She finished runner-up to Gee in last year’s 100 final, falling just 0.12 seconds short.

So it came as little surprise to Gee that Quale was once again right in the mix.

“The 100, I wasn’t too disappointed because I knew (Quale) was going to get me,” Gee said. “She’s really good. But I knew the (400) and (200), I had to get it because I had to make it up and help my team. It’s all about the team, this is my last year and I have to go out with a bang, honestly.”

Indeed, Gee went out with a bang. Not letting the 100 setback get to her, Gee went on to capture her third consecutive state titles in both the 400- and 200-meter dash finals, closing her career with eight individual championships and two relay titles on the final day of the state meet at the MDU Resources Community Bowl.

Gee clocked a runner-up time of 12.22 seconds in the 100 final. She followed it up in the 400 with a new season best of 56.49, beating out Fargo North’s Haylie Hahnert by 0.16 seconds.

She capped her individual career with a winning time of 25.02 seconds in the 200 for another season best, edging Quale in that event by 0.05 seconds.

After falling short in the 100, Gee kept her positive mindset intact.

“I just thought to myself it’s the effort you put in on the track, because the track doesn’t really care about how your day goes,” Gee said about falling short in the 100. “It’s only about the effort, and effort makes champions. The amount of effort you put in is the amount of effort that comes out.”

Gee also helped the Packers’ 4x100-meter relay team to a fifth-place finish Saturday with Sophia Hartje, Gee, Averie Skari and Janneh Morgan clocking a time of 48.98 seconds.

Gee pondered giving up track and field early in her career after she felt her times weren’t up to par. Ten championships later, the sport has become part of her identity.

“(West Fargo track and field) has literally given me my life,” Gee said. “I feel like if it wasn’t for the people who I have on me every day about going to practice, getting my steps in, doing my warmups … I really want to thank (West Fargo sprints) coach (Alissa) Mears. I feel like if it was not for her, I probably would not still be doing this sport.”

Gee said it’s her coaches and teammates who helped shape her into the person she is today.

“I feel like the whole team makes me a better person overall,” Gee said. “Because it’s not like I’m just thinking, ‘Oh hey, I have to win this for myself.’ I think, ‘I have to win this for them.’ Because they all deserve it and not just me.”
