HALLS OF FAME

Celebrating achievements in

ACADEMICS, ARTS & ATHLETICS

since 2000

UNITY • SUCCESS • CHARACTER

ALMA MATER

All Hail, Alma Mater
All Hail, The Black and White
All Hail, Alma Mater
Our sign of truth and right.

Her strength and honor shall last
While future triumphs are cast.

So hail to the Panther's reign,
And to dear old Upper St. Clair.

WELCOME

DR. JOHN ROZZO

Superintendent of Schools

We proudly recognize 11 outstanding individuals whose achievements in academics, the arts, and athletics have brought great pride and distinction to our Upper St. Clair High School and community.

As a lasting tribute, each inductee's name will be added to the Halls of Fame plaques prominently displayed at our school entrances. These honorees stand as inspiring role models for our students and as reminders of the limitless potential that lies within each of them.

The Halls of Fame celebration reflects the very heart of our district's mission and vision. We extend our deepest gratitude to our inductees for sharing their talents and accomplishments, to their families and friends for their support, and to the many staff and volunteers who make this event possible each year.

DR. TIMOTHY WAGNER

Halls of Fame Chairperson
Director of Secondary Education

I am very proud to celebrate our 27th Annual Halls of Fame with our newest class of inductees. Throughout more than a quarter century, our Halls of Fame has recognized 368 individuals - including this year's 11 honorees - who have distinguished themselves in academics, the arts, or athletics and who have contributed to the pride and prestige of Upper St. Clair High School.

We strive to continue the mission of the Halls of Fame and to make an even greater impact on the current students at the High School.

RAY CARSON JR

Retired Administrator & USCHS Class of 1977

Ray served as the District's Senior Director of Operations & Administrative Services from 2018-24, playing a key role in strengthening safety, security and operational effectiveness. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he was part of a multidisciplinary planning team and led the Facilities and Operations team in safely bringing students back to school while maintaining continuity of instruction and school operations. His leadership helped ensure stable staffing and safe, well-functioning schools during an unprecedented time.

Ray holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from West Virginia University and a master's degree in human resources from Rutgers University. Prior to joining the District's leadership team, he held executive vice-president positions with Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield and Wyeth Pharmaceuticals Inc.

He enjoys golfing and fishing.

MICHAEL KENDER

USCHS Class of 1979

A National Merit Semifinalist, Michael was active in track and field and performed in the marching band, stage band and wind symphony.

He earned a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Virginia Tech and an MBA from the University of Virginia. Since 2009, he has served as a Professor of Practice in Finance at Virginia Tech, earning several teaching and career advising honors. He helped establish the university's Investment Banking Group and Hokies on Wall Street alumni group. Prior to academia, he worked as an engineer, investment banker and financial analyst, earning 10 consecutive selections to Institutional Investor magazine's All-America Bond Research Team.

Michael enjoys traveling, reading and helping students succeed. His fondest USCHS memories include performing with the stage band, playing at Pittsburgh Steelers games and seeing the high school musicals come together.

LYNN KISTLER

Retired Faculty Member

Lynn served as a science teacher and Science Curriculum Leader, teaching AP Environmental Science, IB Environmental Systems and Societies, Academic Physics, Honors Chemistry and IB Chemistry. She also served as Science Fair Supervisor and Gilfillan Farm Coordinator.

As Science Curriculum Leader for 17 years, Lynn collaborated with colleagues across the district to expand course offerings, embrace STEAM education and create meaningful learning opportunities for students. She is a member of the National Science Teachers Association, Pa. Science Teachers Association and Switch Energy Alliance Teacher Advisory Council and is a Pa. Master Naturalist.

Lynn earned a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Geneva College and a master's degree in physics from Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Her fondest memories include the people she worked with and the opportunity to help shape science education beyond her own classroom.

CLAIRE K. ZALLA

USCHS Class of 2017

An IB Diploma recipient, valedictorian, National Merit Scholarship recipient and varsity volleyball player, Claire earned a bachelor's degree in global affairs from Yale College, where she served as co-editor-in-chief of The Yale Globalist. She was selected as a 2024-25 Schwarzman Scholar, a prestigious fellowship supporting graduate study in China.

Claire currently serves as an analyst at Blackstone. Previously, she worked as a researcher for CNN's Fareed Zakaria GPS, where she was part of an Emmy Award-winning team recognized for Outstanding Breaking News Coverage of the Israel-Hamas War. She also contributed to Emmy-nominated projects on the fall of Kabul and an interview with Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi.

Claire enjoys writing, running and traveling. Her fondest USC memories include contributing to the "Humans of Upper St. Clair" exhibit, home volleyball games and spending time with friends in the Challenge Room.

LIZ WILLIARD

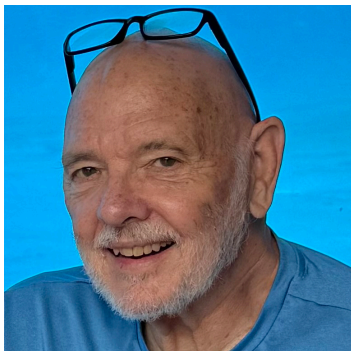
former theater sponsor

Liz served as costume designer for USCHS spring musicals and fall plays from 1995-2017, as well as the school's outside rental theater manager. She also served as a clerical aide in the library and main office and as a parent volunteer.

For more than two decades, she designed, sewed, organized and maintained costumes while teaching students and adult volunteers the artistry and craft of costuming.

She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Carlow University. Liz enjoys sewing and equestrian activities.

Her fondest memories are the friendships and relationships she formed with students, families, staff, theater clients and audience members through her work with the theater program.



TERRY L. WILLIARD

former theater sponsor

Terry served as stage crew sponsor and technical director for USCHS plays and musicals from 1995-2017.

He organized, trained and supervised student technical and set construction crews, teaching the fundamentals of scenery, stagecraft and theater technology.

He also managed set construction, lighting and sound for productions in the USCHS and Boyce theaters. Terry holds a bachelor's degree.

His fondest memories include working alongside students to bring productions of all types to life.

MARCI WEINSTEIN WISEMAN

USCHS Class of 1981

Marci was deeply involved in USCHS activities, serving as student council president and participating in National Honor Society, color guard, International Thespian Society, Broadcasting Club and numerous theater productions.

She earned a bachelor's degree in international relations from Georgetown University and a law degree from New York University School of Law. She is currently CEO, executive producer, board member, adviser and strategist with The Wise Group.

A seasoned entertainment executive, Marci has built and led independent television companies across studios and networks, overseeing creative, production, distribution and deal-making. She is an Emmy, Golden Globe and Critics Choice Award nominee and currently advises media companies and serves on several industry boards.

Her fondest USCHS memories include helping launch the first Community Day, participating in the theater department and being part of the band and football game experience. She enjoys traveling and pottery.

JOSHUA MATHENY

USCHS Class of 2021

A five-time individual state champion, two-time relay state champion, Junior World medalist and champion, state record holder and multi-year All-American, Joshua was named Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Athlete of the Year while at USCHS. At Indiana University, he was a four-time First Team Big Ten honoree, multi-year NCAA finalist, First Team Academic All-American and member of Phi Beta Kappa.

A professional swimmer, Joshua is a 2024 USA Olympian and Olympic finalist, a World Aquatics Championships medalist, the 2025 200-meter breaststroke national champion and 2022 100-meter breaststroke national champion. He also qualified for the 2026 Pan Pacific Championships.

His favorite USCHS memories include winning the medley relay, breaking the state record, participating in the 2018 U-THON and sharing the high school team experiences with his sister. He enjoys golf and pickleball.

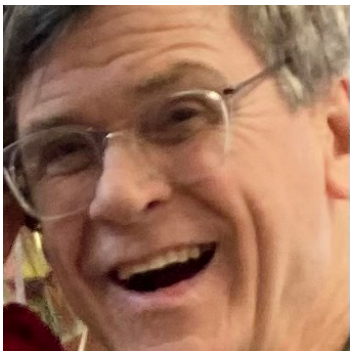
BOB SCHNURE

USCHS Class of 1965

Bob was senior class president and a member of the 1964 undefeated football team, playing offensive and defensive end. He also was co-captain of the 1964-65 basketball team.

Bob spent 40 years as a social studies teacher and coach in the Downingtown Area School District, where he was named Teacher of the Year in 2008. As head girls' basketball coach for 35 years, he compiled a 791-244 record, including five PIAA championships, 12 District 1 titles and 29 league championships. He received numerous Coach of the Year honors and is a member of league and regional halls of fame.

Bob enjoys spending time with family in Maine and Virginia, kayaking, cooking, attending local sporting events and volunteering at a food pantry. His favorite USCHS memories include the teachers, coaches and teammates who influenced him.



JIM SHANAHAN

USCHS Class of 1976

Jim served as a student manager for the 1974 and 1975 WPIAL championship football teams. An Eagle Scout, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Pittsburgh in psychology and vocational rehabilitation counseling.

Jim retired in 2024 from the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry's Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, where he helped people with disabilities maximize their potential, find employment and achieve their goals. He was instrumental in establishing a new Supported Employment Office in Ford City and has presented on supported employment at local, state and national conferences.

Jim enjoys spending time with his granddaughter, golfing, reading and following sports. His fondest USCHS memories include winning football championships and the kindness of the district's faculty and staff.

COREY WILDING

USCHS Class of 2014

Named USCHS Student of the Year in 2013, Corey was a four-year wrestling starter, four-time All-Section honoree and team captain. With 113 career wins, he ranks fourth in school history. A two-sport athlete, he also was a four-year golf starter and helped lead the team to two WPIAL championships and a 2013 PIAA championship.

Corey walked on to the U.S. Naval Academy wrestling team, becoming a four-year starter, team captain and 2018 Academic All-American. He also was named "Captain of the Captains" and is a member of the Naval Academy Athletic Hall of Fame.

He graduated from the Naval Academy with a degree in operations research and currently serves as a U.S. Navy officer and department head. He enjoys golf, chess, working out and spending time with family. His fondest USCHS memory is "winning a state championship with my teammates in 2013."
