Pack Promise+

What is the Nevada Guarantee?

If you've got the grades to go to the University of Nevada, Reno, family finances shouldn't stand in your way.

Pack Promise+ at the University of Nevada, Reno is a need-based financial aid program designed for eligible Nevada residents. This initiative guarantees a comprehensive financial package that covers tuition costs, as well as fees and books, ensuring that financial barriers do not hinder access to education.

How do I qualify?

- Nevada resident admitted to the University of Nevada, Reno
- Pursuing first bachelor's degree
- Full-time undergraduate student (30 credits per year)
- Meet eligibility criteria for the Federal Pell Grant program and have an SAI (Student Aid Index) of $7,000 or less

What do I do?

- Every year, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the Institutional Methodology form between December and April 1st and select the University of Nevada, Reno to receive your information (School Code: 002568)
- Check your MyNEVADA account "To Do list" to be sure you have a complete financial aid file (June 1 priority deadline for documents related to verification, if applicable)

What does it provide?

- Value of at least $11,000 each year
- Eligible undergraduate students are promised gift aid that covers registration and mandatory fees and books for 15 credits each fall and spring semester for four years as long as they make satisfactory academic progress.
- Gift aid includes grants and scholarships from federal, state and institutional sources. Gift aid is financial aid that does not require repayment.
- Students are automatically enrolled in the First in the Pack Program that provides academic and social support.
