KARNS CITY AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT
AUTHORIZATION OF EMERGENCY ALLERGY TREATMENT _____ is allergic to: _____.

If you suspect that a food allergen has been ingested or insect sting, immediately determine the symptoms and treat the reaction as follows:

EMERGENCY RESPONSE: If an allergic reaction is suspected after food exposure or an insect sting, assess symptoms immediately and follow the medication orders below. For severe symptoms or symptoms involving more than one body system, administer epinephrine as prescribed and call 911.

Symptoms		Give medication checked with "X" Antihistamine X	Epinephrine X
MOUTH	Itching, tingling, or swelling of lips, tongue, or mouth
SKIN	Hives, swelling of face or extremities, itchy rash
GUT	Nausea, abdominal cramps, vomiting, or diarrhea
THROAT	Tightening of throat, hoarseness, or hacking cough
LUNG	Shortness of breath, repetitive coughing, or wheezing
HEART	Weak/rapid pulse, passing out, fainting, pale or bluish skin
GENERAL	Panic, sudden fatigue, chills, or feeling of impending doom
OTHER	If a food allergen has been ingested, but no symptoms
OTHER	If a reaction is progressing (several of the above systems affected)

MEDICATION ORDERS — PRESCRIBER TO COMPLETE

Medication	Dose	Route
Epinephrine auto-injector
Antihistamine (Benadryl/diphenhydramine/cetirizine/Zyrtec
Other:

Emergency medication location(s): ☐ Health Office ☐ Classroom ☐ Student carries ☐ other: _____

Epinephrine may need to be repeated if symptoms persist or worsen, according to the prescriber's order. Call 911 for severe allergic reaction/anaphylaxis. Do not delay emergency medical care.

EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION

	Name	Phone number	Address
Parent/Guardian 1
Parent/Guardian 2
Primary Care Provider
Emergency Contact
Preferred Hospital

Other allergies / medical conditions: _____ Approximate weight: _____ lbs

DO NOT HESITATE TO ADMINISTER PRESCRIBED EMERGENCY MEDICATION OR CALL 911.

Prescriber Name / Signature			Date
Parent/Guardian Signature			Date