CCPS Announces INNOVATE CLAYTON: A Student STEM Experience

District Celebrates National STEM Day with Hands-On Learning and Emerging Technologies

JONESBORO - Clayton County Public Schools (CCPS) invites all students in grades K–12 and their families to INNOVATE CLAYTON: A Student STEM Experience, scheduled for Saturday, November 14, 2026, from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Sequoyah Middle School, located at 95 Valley Hill Road in Riverdale, Georgia.

In recognition of National STEM Day, INNOVATE CLAYTON expands upon the district's TechXperience initiative, offering an exciting day of hands-on STEM activities, emerging technologies, and interactive learning experiences designed to inspire creativity, curiosity, and innovation.

Students and families will have opportunities to explore robotics, drones, artificial intelligence, virtual reality, engineering, and other innovative technologies through engaging activities supported by educators, industry professionals, and community partners.

The event will also feature the Innovation by Design Challenge, where registered school teams will demonstrate their creativity and problem-solving skills by developing solutions to real-world challenges. While the competition is reserved for registered school teams, all K–12 students and families are welcome to participate in the broader STEM experiences.
