Alternative (Late-Testing) Administration Schedule

Late testing occurs during the third week of May for students who have exam time conflicts (e.g., two exams scheduled for the exact same timeslot) or approved school/medical conflicts. Alternate exam versions are used to preserve exam security.

Late-Testing Qualification:

- Standard late testing due to exam conflicts, athletic competitions, or medical reasons carries no extra fee. Requests made purely for personal preference are subject to College Board coordinator approval and potential late fees.
