   A. Student/Staff Recognition

      1. Dr. Cassandra Doggrell, Seneca Valley's Director of Student Services, has been selected as a fellow in the Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL) SEL Fellows Academy. The 10-month national leadership program brings together education leaders to strengthen their expertise in social and emotional learning and advance its implementation in schools and communities. Dr. Doggrell oversees special education, gifted education, school counseling and health services. More information can be found at svsd.net.
      2. For the fourth year in a row, several students from Ryan Gloyer Middle School took part in a tree planting blitz around Cranberry Township on Tuesday Oct. 27 as a way to create a greener future for their community. Students dispersed from the Cranberry Township Municipal Center and into various neighborhoods to plant over 300 trees. More information can be found at svsd.net.
