Goooood Morning Raiders,

It's Friday November 6th, and this is your morning message:

Raider Nation, it's SENIOR NIGHT! Join us at Raider Stadium tonight at 6:50 PM as we celebrate our senior marching band members, cheerleaders, and football players! Then stay, get loud, and bring the energy as your Raiders take on region opponent Lanier in our FINAL HOME GAME of the season! Let's pack the stands and celebrate our class of 2027!

Run, Raiders, Run! Best of luck to our Cross Country athletes as they head to Carrollton tomorrow for the STATE CHAMPIONSHIP! Leave it all on the course, run like the wind, and make Raider Nation proud!

Basketball season is HERE! Join us Tuesday night for our HOME OPENER and help us pack the stands and bring the energy! Don't just hear about it Wednesday. Be there and be part of something special! Let's Get AMPED, Raiders!

Also Tuesday night, join us for Part 2 of The AI Generation: Parenting with Confidence in the Digital Age, featuring cybersecurity and technology executive, author, entrepreneur, and U.S. Marine Corps veteran Patrick J. Doliny, along with Heather Van Looy, Fulton County Schools Director of Instructional Technology and leader of the Vanguard Team.

November is Georgia Apply to College Month, and many Georgia colleges are waiving application fees. Counselors will distribute GA Match letters during Senior Snack on Friday, 11/13. AHS will also host Quick Admit Days with Gwinnett Technical College on November 18, Georgia Southern University on November 19, and Kennesaw State University on November 20.

More than 20% of AHS seniors enroll at Georgia State University. High-achieving seniors with strong academics, leadership, and community involvement are encouraged to apply for GSU's Stamps and Presidential Scholarships. Visit the AHS Counselor Corner Class of 2027 Canvas page or the Scholarship Matching tool in ClassLink for details.

Interested in West Point? Hear from a current cadet about college life, leadership, academics, and admissions on Wednesday, December 2, during 5th period in the AHS Media Center. The session is open to all students, but space is limited. Sign up through IC Messenger by Friday, November 20.

Second Semester Schedule Changes: Students and families should review schedules in Infinite Campus. Changes will be considered only when necessary, such as fulfilling a graduation requirement, filling an empty period, removing a completed course, or correcting a scheduling error.

Requests to change teachers, class periods, lunch periods, or electives will generally not be approved. If a change is necessary, review the schedule change policy and submit the Microsoft Form by Friday, January 15. The form is available on the AHS website and will be emailed to students and families today at 9 AM.

Get ready, Raider Nation! Our Masquerade Prom is coming to the fabulous Fox Theatre in Atlanta on April 17, 2027! Tickets go on sale in February, so start making your plans and stay tuned for updates!

Wishing a joyful Diwali to all who celebrate! The Festival of Lights celebrates the triumph of light over darkness, knowledge over ignorance, and good over evil. May this special occasion bring light, hope, happiness, and peace to our students, families, and staff. We celebrate the rich traditions that make our school community so special and wish everyone observing Diwali a wonderful celebration!

Another outstanding week of learning, leadership, and achievement at Alpharetta.

That's all for now Rich Raiders, remember, Keep it focused, keep it clean, keep it moving, keep it civil, and keep it classy.
