Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 10 Theatre in Education Programme 'Calling It Out"– Thursday 19th November 2026

I am delighted to invite Year 10 students to attend a 1-hour live performance and workshop event. This will be delivered by Loudmouth Education and Training. Loudmouth is a highly respected and innovative theatre in education company who has worked with us at Southam College over several years. The company has been delivering Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) since 1994. Loudmouth provides a range of programmes and formats that supports safeguarding and relationship education. Loudmouth's work aims to ensure a future where all children and young people are healthy, happy, safe, and resilient.

The theme of the production is recognising unhealthy relationships. This programme uses a drama and discussion workshop that follows a young couple as their friendship and relationship develops. Looking in on their relationship the pupils are shown the characteristics of both a healthy and unhealthy relationship exploring the concepts of harmful sexual behaviours (sexual harassment and assault), misogyny, abusive and coercive behaviours, respect and consent within relationships.

Should your child not wish to take part in this event please email griffin.c@sco.svmat.uk prior to the date of the event.

This event has been fully funded, so no contribution is required from parents.

We hope that this is both an enjoyable and educational event for students.

Yours sincerely,

Miss C Harwood
Deputy Headteacher
