FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES CHAIR

KATHERINE LUCAS, Evan '20, Emma '29, Mason '29

> "This year, our community came together in ways that embody our mission and values, with the light of St. Patrick's shining brightly."

Dear St. Patrick's Community,

As we reflect on the 2024–2025 school year, I am filled with gratitude for the generosity and shared purpose that define St. Patrick's as a close-knit community. This year, our community came together in ways that embody our mission and values, with the light of St. Patrick's shining brightly.

This collective commitment was evident in the philanthropic support of the Annual Fund and the IDEALS 50th Anniversary Fund-A-Scholar. Your generosity ensures that St. Patrick's remains a place where students are known, valued, and challenged, and where access to an exceptional education is made possible for a wide range of families.

Thanks to the leadership of our Annual Fund Chair, John Barabino, and the dedication of our IDEALS Fund-A-Scholar Co-Chairs, Elaine del Cerro and Julia Ghafouri, we achieved remarkable results. The Annual Fund provided over $1,000,000 in vital support across every facet of the School, while IDEALS Fund-A-Scholar, held in a beautifully transformed Enchanted Garden, raised over $850,000. Equally important has been the spirit of service and generosity shown by every member of our community. Whether volunteering in classrooms, serving on the Annual Fund Leadership Council, helping to make IDEALS a success, working a shift at Family Fun Day, cleaning up the garden, or contributing quietly behind the scenes, our parents, grandparents, alumni, and friends have given of their time and talent in countless ways. These acts, large and small, strengthen the fabric of St. Patrick's and ensure that our mission thrives.

As we celebrate these successes, we are also looking ahead. This year, the Board focused on our campus master planning process to envision how our physical spaces can best support St. Patrick's mission for decades to come. While this work is just beginning, it reflects our shared commitment to stewarding the School's resources wisely and ensuring that our campus remains a place where children learn, grow, and thrive.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, thank you for your partnership and belief in St. Patrick's. Together, we shine infinitely brighter, grow infinitely stronger, and care infinitely more for our students, for one another, and for the future we are building together.

With gratitude,

Katherine Lucas
Chair, Board of Trustees

IMPACT OF YOUR GIFTS

Here are just a few of the activities and initiatives that our generous community of supporters have financed with their gifts to the Annual Fund:

- Commitment to fostering student interest in the performing arts through music instruction during a child's journey at the Day School, grade-level performances, participation in an annual choral festival, Holiday and spring concerts, and the spring musical at our annual Middle School Performing and Studio Arts Night.
- The Day School's offering of multiple extra-curricular options for students including our Robotics Club, which returned to the competitive arena in the 2024-2025 school year where they tackled real-world issues tied to a theme, consulted with experts, and designed creative, research-based solutions.
- Continued dedication to our sustainability program, offering educational instruction in the classroom for students to learn about environmental sustainability as well as offering families opportunities to support and grow the program through work at the Day School's Garden & Outdoor Learning Space and other events.
- Intentional off-campus educational experiences through a variety of field trips during a student's time at the Day School. Starting with a trip to a farm in Kindergarten, to an all-day STEM experience in Annapolis for Grade 3, to their first overnight trip in Pennsylvania for Grade 4, and culminating with a multi-day Civil Rights trip in Grade 8 to Georgia and Alabama, our students engage with and learn from real-world educational settings.
- Our community's commitment to ensure that a St. Patrick's education is accessible to families from a broad range of economic backgrounds by maintaining strong support for our Financial Aid Program and working diligently to minimize tuition increases.

EVERGREEN CIRCLE (☘)

The Evergreen Circle is a special philanthropic society recognizing the many loyal donors who support St. Patrick's consistently over time. This society is not about how much you give; it's about the simple act of giving, year after year.

Members of this society have made a gift to the Annual Fund for the past five or more consecutive fiscal years and are denoted with a shamrock (☘) in the Annual Fund donor lists.

"I am so deeply grateful to each of you for helping create an outstanding learning environment at St. Patrick's. Thanks to the dedicated volunteers on the Annual Fund Leadership Council and to your incredible generosity, the Annual Fund raised $1 million this year—an incredible achievement that allows us to enrich our students' education beyond what tuition alone can offer. Your support ensures our faculty have the tools and resources to nurture every child's potential and to see the Infinite Value, Infinite Promise in each and every student at St Patrick's. I'm honored to be part of this community that works together to inspire, empower, and shape the future generation. Thank you."

WHY WE GIVE

"We support the St. Patrick's Annual Fund because we see firsthand the difference it makes in ours and our students' lives. The fund helps provide resources that go beyond the basics, like updated classroom materials that enhance learning, contributing to faculty and staff salaries, and creating a more engaging environment for every child, including our youngest learners in the Early Childhood Division. We believe that investing in our school is investing in our students' futures, and we're proud to contribute to a community that values early education, equity, and excellence."

WHY WE GIVE

"We give to St. Patrick's because it's more than a school—it is a community that has helped raise not just our children, but now our grandchildren, too. From the energetic ringing of handbells in chapel to the lessons learned on the sports field, from acting on stage to acing math quizzes, St. Patrick's builds confidence, curiosity and character in every child. The teachers are incredible—wise, kind, and somehow endlessly patient, and the values they instill show up in the classroom, on the playground, and even at our dinner table. Supporting the annual fund means investing in a place where kids grow up believing they can do anything—whether it's solving an equation, leading a prayer, or playing a tree with gusto in the sixth grade play."

WHY WE GIVE

"Our daughter thrived at St. Patrick's. Not only did it prepare her academically, but it helped build the foundation of who she is as a person: a caring friend, an engaged citizen, and a life-long learner. We are immensely grateful for the role St. Patrick's played in her development, and want to do our part to ensure that opportunity continues to be available in our community for generations to come."

"Co-chairing the 50th anniversary of IDEALS was an absolute pleasure as well as an honour. In my final year as a St. Patrick's parent, it felt as though all the years at the school had stood me in good stead to work hard to create a memorable evening. The funds that the community raised are essential in securing the legacy of IDEALS—a true testament to the St. Patrick's community of how much our children now and in the future mean to all of us.

With invaluable support from the Advancement Office, Mary Stuart Travers, C2 Auctions and board members, things came together smoothly. Bringing the event back to the school brought with it a sense of familiarity and belonging.

Record amounts raised have brought me full circle, from my son entering in Kindergarten and now graduating Grade 8. I am proud as we move forward from a beloved school with a truly special community."

Elaine del Cerro
Mother of Mateo '25

"We are so fortunate to be part of this community that leads with kindness, shows up with support, and demonstrates an unwavering commitment to each of its members, especially our children. To me, this is exactly what IDEALS is all about, and St. Patrick's sure did rise to the occasion this year—by opening their hearts and their wallets! I'm incredibly grateful to everyone who contributed their time, energy, and generosity to support the 50th Anniversary of IDEALS Fund-A-Scholar. Co-chairing the auction was a truly fun and rewarding experience. Beyond the financial success, it was the shared effort and spirit of community that means the most."

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT: STEFAN BINDLEY-TAYLOR '10

Below is the story of one of our many exceptional alumni who were beneficiaries of our Financial Aid Program.

Stefan Bindley-Taylor attended St. Patrick's from Kindergarten through Grade 8, graduating in 2010. He went on to attend Georgetown Day School for high school, then Pitzer College for his undergraduate studies. He completed a Masters of Education degree at Harvard Graduate School of Education in 2021, and he is currently enrolled in an MFA program in creative writing at the University of Virginia.

As a writer, his recent and forthcoming work can be found in several outlets including Chautauqua, The Common, Adda, and Brooklyn Rail. He is the winner of the 2025 Chautauqua Janus prize, the 2025 DISQUIET Flowers fellowship, a 2025 Kimbilio Fellowship, the 2024 Brooklyn Caribbean Literary Festival Prize, a short-lister for the 2024 Commonwealth Foundation Short Story Prize, and a finalist for the PEN 2023 Emerging Voices Fellowship.

What impact do you think St. Patrick's had on your life?

I was lucky enough to have had more than a few teachers at St. Patrick's whose lessons and influence stayed with me well into adulthood. There are too many to count, but to name a few: Mr. Goverman, Mr. d'Aubermont, and the late Ms. Muir and Ms. Mackie. And, of course, Mrs. Klingenberg, who has become a lifelong family friend (and whom, out of practices of respect in my culture, I now refer to as aunty!). These teachers showed me how to approach the world with curiosity and humor, learn from my mistakes, and strive to be the best I can be. Now that I'm a teacher myself, I draw constant inspiration from their legacies.

Why did you choose to go into your field? What are you passionate about?

My journey into writing felt like a natural extension of my work as an English teacher over the past few years. Through writing, I attempt to give voice to my experiences and observations, to make sense of the world, and to pose questions about it. I often write about my Trinidadian heritage and explore what it means to be Caribbean diaspora. I'm proud to come from a region of the world that has produced so many incredible writers, and I hope to add to that legacy.

What are your plans/goals/dreams for the future?

I'm looking forward to continuing my studies at my MFA program and completing my collection of linked short stories. I dream of getting it published and seeing it go out into the world to connect with other people. From there, I hope to keep on teaching and starting new creative projects in writing and beyond and seeing where it all takes me.

What is your favorite memory of St. Patrick's?

My favorite memory at St. Patrick's is actually not from my time as a student, but my time as a teacher. In 2021, I was fortunate enough to be able to return for a year as a 5th grade homeroom and ELA teacher while I was completing my Master's. It was surreal to be a colleague of so many of the teachers that taught me when I was younger. As was the case for schools all around the country, navigating teaching during the COVID pandemic was challenging, to say the least, but I was impressed by the grit and communal spirit St. Patrick's faculty and staff showed in coming together to make it all work. I'm particularly grateful for the wonderful team of 5th grade teachers—Laura Peterson, Laura Philips, Chloe Henson, and Imani Edwards—and, of course, my remarkable class of 5th graders. The whole experience was a true highlight of my teaching career.

Why do you think that gifts to support financial aid are important?

While every student deserves the kind of attention, resources, and individualized care that a school like St. Patrick's has to offer, there are unfortunately many barriers to accessing and affording private education. While it doesn't address all the issues, financial aid is one tangible way to help extend the doors of St. Patrick's to a wider and more diverse range of students. Through developing the financial aid program, I hope to see a future where the opportunities of St. Patrick's can be afforded to all students.

WHY I VOLUNTEER

"Truthfully, I started volunteering at the school because I had a 3-year-old going to nursery school during Covid – and it was difficult letting go. His (and our) experience with Ms. Blake-Moore and Mrs. Merotto and the wider school community during those years were so impactful. And, now five years later, I can't imagine him spending as much time as he does at St. Patrick's, anywhere else. Personally, I am genuinely happy to be in and around the building as much as I can be. It's a joy getting to know the teachers and staff and really understand and participate in the place my child spends so much time. This school is a "big hug" in so many ways – and I think all St. Patrick's parents who volunteer with us or not would agree."

Graduation

Reflections on the 2024–2025 School Year and Acknowledgement of the Class of 2025

AN EXCERPT FROM HEAD OF SCHOOL, JALENE SPAIN THOMAS, GRADUATION REMARKS

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and Board of Trustees of St. Patrick's Episcopal Day School, it is my great honor to welcome you to the commencement ceremony for the Class of 2025—our 22nd Grade 8 graduation.

Twenty-three years ago, St. Patrick's took a bold and hopeful step. We grew from a school that ended in Grade 6 to one that welcomed its first Grade 7 class—and then, just one year later, celebrated our very first Grade 8 graduates.

That legacy of courage, growth, and vision lives on in every student we send forth—and it is alive and well in the extraordinary class before us today.

We gather this afternoon in a spirit of thanksgiving and celebration. Today marks a moment of transition for 33 outstanding students who have brought integrity, empathy, and purpose to every area of school life.

We honor their achievements, their friendships, their growth, and their promise.

This class holds a special place in my heart. My first year at St. Patrick's was their first year of Middle School.

Over three years that went by far too quickly, you found your way—with dedicated faculty and staff lighting your path.

And now, you are the lightholders, carrying that light with you to high schools that will be made better by your presence.

CONGRATULATIONS, Class of 2025!

This I Believe

GRADE 8 STATEMENTS

In a beloved Graduation tradition, each Grade 8 student offers individual remarks to a gathering of family and faculty and staff. Our Grade 8 students were asked to commit to a value or set of values that they believe in and then reflect on them in the form of short essays modeled after the 1950's radio program entitled "This I Believe." We share a few excerpts below as a representation of the quality of these fine graduates and the esteem in which we hold each member of the Class of 2025.

"I believe that with the right mindset, you can push yourself to do incredible things."

Colbie Punaro '25

"I believe that kindness shows up everywhere and from everyone. I believe that kindness shows up everywhere and from everyone when you look for it."

Harrison Field '25

"I believe that we should be appreciative of the time we have with each other...small moments that have taught me to be truly appreciative of the time we have together, because even when it's limited, the love and memories we create can last a lifetime."

Fifi Martinez-Reza '25

"[I believe in] looking at situations I may not enjoy another way, for even in times of change there is always a positive. You just have to find it."

Wynne Wilkinson '25

"There is this saying that my parents constantly repeat to me, which is, "Failure is just the opportunity to grow." I believe that failing is necessary to grow, and that no one successful has achieved that success without being knocked down."

Duke Ashton '25

"I believe in embracing change, even when it can be challenging or scary. While I reflect on these final few days at St. Patricks, I have many feelings of gratitude, sadness, and joy, but I am looking forward to what the future holds for me, and I'm excited to start a new chapter of my life in a new place, which is why I believe in embracing change even when it can be difficult."

Ryan Siegel '25

"I strongly believe that being your authentic self is one of the most important actions you can take in life. Instead of trying to fit in, I try to be myself and appreciate who I am and where I am from. Being authentic is one of the most important ways to live."

Miles Barabino '25

Faculty AWARDS

Following are excerpts from Head of School Jalene Spain Thomas' remarks at the Chapel Honoring Faculty and Staff in May, during which she announced Middle School Humanities Teacher, Julia Smith, as the recipient of the Love of Teaching Award in Honor of Mark Humphreys and Assistant Controller, Minnie Ivery (P '25) as the recipient of the Jeff Keffer Service Award.

Love of Teaching Award in Honor of Mark Humphreys

JULIA SMITH, MIDDLE SCHOOL HUMANITIES TEACHER

All of the nominations for this year's recipient captured this teacher's presence in the community, leadership through action, work as a colleague, and strength in the content they teach. This teacher "truly lives out our school's creed of honesty, respect, and kindness. They model these values daily through their words, actions, and relationships, setting a powerful example for our community. They are a true talent and a true Wolfhound." A colleague said "I would like to nominate [this teacher] for the Love of Teaching Award. With an extensive history in the classroom, this teacher remains as passionate and committed as ever, eager to connect with every student and unafraid to dive into challenging, meaningful topics. Their warmth, humor, and deep care for their students make their classroom a place where all feel welcomed and seen. Whether designing new curriculum or providing timely, thoughtful feedback, their dedication to craft is evident in everything they do."

"With an extensive history in the classroom, this teacher remains as passionate and committed as ever, eager to connect with every student and unafraid to dive into challenging, meaningful topics."

This teacher is well known for consistently reviewing, revising, and adding to the curriculum. Despite being here for so long, they have not taught exactly the same thing two years in a row during any of the years I have known them. They are eager and willing to try new things in order to hook kids and/or respond to current issues.

They also collaborate so well. Being a part of the Grade 7 English team is not always easy, and she continues to share, collaborate, and bring positive energy.

She builds community in so many ways—puzzles, pickles, parties, badgers, and, more substantially, noticing when certain kids need some TLC and figuring out how to support all of our learners.

This teacher is a gifted humanities teacher whose deep love for literature and education shines through in everything she does. She connects with her students in meaningful ways, inspiring them to become the best version of themselves, both in and out of the classroom. Each year, she pours her heart into her teaching, crafting thoughtful lessons that challenge, engage, and uplift. Her passion for literature and the intentional choices she makes in her curriculum not only ignite curiosity but also nurture a lifelong love of learning in her students.

This year's Love of Teaching Award (and captain's chair) goes to Grades 6 & 7 Literature Teacher and 6A Advisor, Julia Smith!

ABOUT THE AWARD

More than a decade ago, a group of parents initiated a conversation with us about ways to honor then-Grade 3 teacher Mark Humphreys' contributions to St. Patrick's. The outcome was that a named fund was created to recognize Mark and thank him for his service to the Day School. This fund, the Love of Teaching Award in Honor of Mark Humphreys, provides a new recipient each year with a stipend to augment that teacher's class instructional program or personal, professional development opportunities during that year.

Each year, we invite nominations of potential honorees for the Love of Teaching Award from members of the faculty and staff for consideration by the Division Heads, who in turn make a recommendation to the Head of School. To recognize the recipient further, an anonymous donor purchased and donated to the Day School a wooden captain's chair to the Day School with the St. Patrick's logo. The chair is given to the honored educator for the year for use in that individual's classroom or office.

Here are the qualities we set forth or nominees for the Love of Teaching Award:

- a dedication and determination to help each child develop to that child's fullest potential;
- a clear sense of teaching as a craft at which the nominee always strives to get better;
- a determination and willingness to find what works for each student;
- an understanding of the importance of collaboration with colleagues; and,
- the conviction that the best students this individual has ever taught are those currently in that classroom.

We ask faculty and staff who are nominating someone for the Love of Teaching Award to write a brief statement as to how that particular individual displays those qualities.

The Jeff Keffer Service Award

ASSISTANT CONTROLLER, MINNIE IVERY

Like Jeff, this individual is a wise and deeply grounded human being, with a commitment to doing what is right, good, and fair. This individual consistently demonstrates an unwavering commitment to the well-being of our community. Whether guiding new faculty and staff through their benefits or assisting families during difficult financial times, they are always ready to step in with clarity, compassion, and care.

Beyond practical support, they are someone who truly listens. They are always willing to lend an ear, offer thoughtful advice, and seek out meaningful ways to help others, making a lasting impact on everyone they encounter. This individual's patience and kindness are not only remarkable, but they are also deeply genuine and felt by all who have the privilege of working with them.

Over the years, this individual has given their time to volunteering for Hoops for Haiti, supporting our Extended Day program, and now brings their patient, gentle way to lunch with our children and their sensitive, astute observations to the Head's Advisory Group.

They embody the very spirit of St. Patrick's: compassionate, supportive, and dedicated to lifting others up, no matter the circumstances. Their presence makes our community stronger, and their efforts deserve to be recognized and celebrated.

Outside of St. Patrick's, this individual is rooted in their faith and dedicated to their church, Grace Covenant Church in Chantilly. As an active member of the Grace Loves group, this individual supports the church's community outreach program. They have also brought their love of being around children to the Church's summer bible study program, teaching elementary age children about their infinite value in the eyes of God.

With eighteen years of service to St. Patrick's, this person has given tremendously to this community.

This person

- Thinks of those experiencing hardships and finds a way to support them through challenging times
- Is genuinely friendly, joyful, and compassionate
- Has gained the trust of this community through their years of dedication, discretion, and support
- Thinks deeply about each child and community member as a child of God
- Has her son, Kaleb, here today–an eighth grader about to graduate from St. Patrick's who couldn't be a greater reflection of his mother's kind and caring ways.

The Jeff Keffer Service Award goes to Assistant Controller, Minnie Ivery.

"They embody the very spirit of St. Patrick's; compassionate, supportive, and dedicated to lifting others up, no matter the circumstances. Their presence makes our community stronger, and their efforts deserve to be recognized and celebrated."

ABOUT JEFF KEFFER

Jeff Keffer was an individual who clearly understood that we must work to make human institutions, relationships, and situations better than they were when we arrived. He had a keen sense of the roles each of us can and should play in this effort as faculty and staff, students, and parents. Rather than expecting those roles to constrain us, though, Jeff seemed to think that a clear, textured understanding of our various roles frees us to be our best selves.

Jeff and Elizabeth Keffer arrived at St. Patrick's in the fall of 1998, nearing a quarter of a century now, when they enrolled their oldest child, May, in the Nursery School. Daughter Abby and son Griffin would follow, and, in time, all three would graduate from St. Patrick's. Along the way, Jeff was a constant, vital presence. First and foremost, in this place, a superb father to his three children, Jeff was also a gifted, selfless volunteer before, during, and well beyond his years as a Trustee. He brought thoughtfulness and care to his efforts to make St. Patrick's an even better place.

Beginning in 2012, we have endeavored to remember and honor a man, a father, a husband, a volunteer, and a friend who revealed his sense of St. Patrick's Episcopal Day School through a depth of involvement, commitment, energy, and achievement—a life of service to this institution—that will be difficult to equal. We remember and honor, this man by acknowledging a member of the St. Patrick's faculty and staff for that individual's commitment to the Day School, demonstrated understanding of the community that comprises St. Patrick's, and service to the health and vitality of the institution. Specifically, we honor, in Jeff Keffer's name, a member of the faculty and staff who has demonstrated, over time, that understanding of and commitment to this place, that dedication to the quality of the experience of the young people who animate this place, and that yearning for excellence that shaped Jeff's life in service to St. Patrick's.

On our Foxhall Campus, for which Jeff was a tireless advocate, there is the Jeffrey M. Keffer Memorial Dell. Sitting on the bench in that tranquil place, you can turn and look over your left shoulder to see the Garden & Outdoor Learning Space.
