The Friends & Foundation of the Corvallis-Benton County Public Library will hold their annual Holiday Book Sale Dec. 4-6, 2026, in the main meeting room at the Corvallis Library, 645 N.W. Monroe Ave. Hours are: Dec. 4, donors only noon to 2 p.m. and open to the public 2 to 6 p.m., Dec. 5, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Dec. 6, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This year's sale will have more shopping time – it will run for three days rather than the usual two. Items for sale will be over 3,000 gift-quality used books, both fiction and non-fiction for all ages, CDs, DVDs, and puzzles. There will be an especially large selection of beautiful children's books this year. There will also be refreshments to enjoy while shopping.

Early entrance is available on Dec. 4 for those who have donated $20 or more in the past year; donations may be made at the door or at https://www.cbcplfriendsandfoundation.org/give-now. All other hours will be open to everyone. Sales benefit activities and programs at all library locations: Alsea, Corvallis, Monroe, and Philomath.

Friends & Foundation of the Library always welcomes more volunteer help to transport and sell books. If interested, please email volunteer@cbcplfriendsandfoundation.org.
