DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS
November 20, 2026

May I have your attention for the announcements please…

Letter Jackets are in. If you ordered a letter jacket in September, please go to the Brothers' Residence during your lunch period to pick it up.

Good morning, Bear Fans! It's playoff Friday! Our varsity football team hosts Lafayette tonight at 7 PM in the second round of the Division I Select playoffs. Per LHSAA rules, spirit passes won't be accepted. Tickets are available at i2tickets.com. Fill the stands, wear your orange and black, and bring the noise. Cheer loudly for us, respect the other side, and represent CHS well. Our swim team heads to Sulphur today for the state meet prelims, with finals tomorrow. Send them off with a good word and remember that anyone who wants to ride the bus tomorrow needs to email Mrs. Pasquier. Be on the line. Go Bears!

Thank you for your attention; that is all.
